conference unless Russia renounced the economic agreement concluded by her with another independent country, the very powers whose principal conception of European politics aims at their entire subordination to the jurisdiction of a group of governments, are now again imperiling the conference by attaching the character of "ultimatum" to the draft of an agreement presented to Russia by other powers than themselves.

T. S. CABINET REVIEWS RUSSIAN SITUATION.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—(By the Associated Press.)—A discussion of the Russian problem, as it is affected by the negotiations at Genoa, occupied most of today's session of the cabinet. It developed an opinion that the attitude of the allied governments toward the soviet regime had shaped up at Genoa in virtual agreement with the policies of the United States.

By an administration spokesman, a hope was expressed that a solution of the whole problem that could be endorsed by this government might be reached at Genoa. It was added that should the conference fail, the United States would have to go ahead independently in adjusting its relations with Russia.

Indemnity Payments Declared Impossible

HAMBURG, May 9 (By the Associated Press).—Germany adopted a policy in fulfilling her reparations obligations to gain time and make her enemies realize that the obligations are unfulfillable, and that aim has been attained, said Dr. Gessler, minister of defense, in an address yesterday to the local branch of the Democratic party.

Dr. Gessler added that should France now proceed alone against Germany, Great Britain and the other allies would not prevent her, but they would refuse her all support, especially moral support.

moved the box and the phonograph back to the closet and went home.

The violin-maker had but a few hours of consciousness before he died and in one of them he told Ed to take away a pigskin box that stood in a corner. "Take this record and the machine, too," he said with a smile of understanding for the lad alone.

After the funeral Ed opened the box. It contained books of music, some photographs, and a bundle of newspaper clippings. The clippings were reviews of records by Eduardo Miller and tales of an accident which had befallen the musician at the height of his career. The photographs were of the violin-maker in his magnificent youth.

Shooting of Bootleg Maker Held Rightful

San Francisco, May 9.—(By the Associated Press.)—District Attorney Frank J. Burns today called on United States Attorney William J. Clegg to request that the prohibition director Samuel Ruster in San Francisco for an explanation of the shooting, last Sunday, of Joseph Cincelli, who was arrested operating an illicit still in Alameda county. Cincelli, it was reported, was shot by prohibition agents, and is in a serious condition.

Williams informed Clegg that the operation of an illicit still is a felony, and that men fleeing from arrest can be halted by shooting.

Girls Cut Off Toes To Wear Tiny Shoes

LONDON, May 9 (By International News Service).—A little toe is a small concern where fashion is concerned. It was revealed today by the Daily Express. This newspaper states that many fashionable society women are having their small toes removed so that they can wear the new style in shoes which are long, narrow and pointed.

McCormack to Sing In Three Months

LONDON, May 9 (By International News Service).—John McCormack, tenor, who arrived here today from New York, said that the ocean voyage had benefited his health but that it would be three months before he could sing again.

TWO PLEAD NOT GUILTY

Dennis Nolan and William Bevert pleaded not guilty today before Police Judge Edward H. Tyrrell. The date of their trial was set for May 22. G. E. Church, a taxi driver, claims that the two men beat him after they hired his machine. The alleged assault took place early Sunday morning.

BELGIANS READY TO RESTORE HUGE RUSSIAN PLANTS

Brussels Industrialists Have
2,500,000,000 Francs
Invested in Trade.

GENOA, May 9 (By the Associated Press).—Belgium is the center of the fierce controversy over the Russian question at the economic conference here. It is Belgium's objection to clause 7 in the allied memorandum to the Russians behind which France is standing in her opposition to the memorandum. Consequently all eyes in Genoa are on Belgium and M. Jaspar, foreign minister and chairman of the Belgian delegation.

"The question raised by Belgium about clause 7 has two aspects," Jaspar said today. "On one side it is a question of principle concerning respect for protection of private property abroad. The side on which the economic restoration concerns the industry of that country."

"Belgium invested two and a half billions of francs, gold, in Russian industry, and possessed 261 factories, including blast furnaces, glass factories, electric street railways, cloth mills, water works and electric light plants. We used to produce in Russia before the war 12 per cent of the country's output of the steel rails, 75 per cent of the chemical products, 50 per cent of the glass, tableware and 30 per cent of the window glass. Belgian industrialists already have a billion francs laid aside to restore their industries there."

"In clause 7 Belgium admitted a formula which allowed for nationalization of property in Russia in condition that its use should be granted to the old proprietors, or when this was impossible, compensation be given them."

Now Bulgaria Wants International Loan

GENOA, May 9 (By the Associated Press).—Bulgaria asked the economic conference yesterday that the reparations due from her under the terms of the treaty of Neuilly be postponed for a prolonged period and that, instead, a considerable international loan be granted her. She also asked for an outlet to the Aegean sea, without which she claims it impossible to restore her commerce.

New Parleys Needed, Says Ambassador Ricci Here

"It is too much to expect that the woes of Europe can be settled at one conference. The Genoa conference, to my belief, is the forerunner of a series of international consultations which will be held in the various neutral capitals. Each such conference may even take place at no distant date in Berlin!" Senator V. Rolandi Ricci, Italian ambassador to the United States, said this statement yesterday. He used the French language throughout the interview, and said:

"The fact that the Russians, the Germans and the Allies have been brought together at one table, and that they are discussing matters of far-reaching importance to all the world, is enough to stamp the Genoa conference as the turning point of success. However, I do not believe that the conference will be able to dispose of all matters now pending, nor that it will effect the cure of the economic disorders to which the body politic of Europe is at present subject."

DIFFICULT FACTORS. There are many difficult factors to be dealt with at Genoa. Some nations, such as my own, can face the future with comparative tranquility and calmness. It can be said without exaggeration that, with the disappearance of the Hapsburg Empire, Italy has no enemies. Therefore, we come to the Genoa conference in a mood of perfect self-control and equanimity.

Some other nations, however, are not so fortunate. France, for instance, continues to suffer from her "cauchemar" (nightmare) of future German aggression, and in considering her attitude one must bear in mind her tremendous losses of life in the war.

The world should, when it comes to discussing the roles played at the conference by the various powers, never lose sight of the fact that France played a wonderfully heroic role in the war.

It is difficult to comment upon the actual progress being made from day to day at Genoa, for the simple reason that conditions at the conference are changing every day. The despatches received here hardly keep time with these changes.

ITALY AND JUGO-SLAVIA. When asked for his view on the future relations between Italy and Jugo-Slavia, which were strained to the breaking point by the Fiume incident, Ambassador Ricci said: "Jugo-Slavia is a young nation, the component parts of which are extremely fiery and proud of their nationality. But things are beginning to become 'mellowed' there, too, and I do not anticipate any trouble between Jugo-Slavia and Italy."

Asked whether he thought that Germany could pay the huge indemnity placed on her by the Versailles treaty, the ambassador became thoughtful. When he answered his reply was most diplomatic:

Germany certainly can pay part of the indemnity. More I cannot say. I was recently three days in Germany, and naturally this was not sufficient to form an opinion.

A large gathering of leading citizens and prominent members of the Italian community of Oakland greeted the ambassador at the luncheon given in his honor at the Hotel Oakland yesterday. Among the 200 guests attending the luncheon were: V. Filitti, Italian consul-general; Dr. C. Queirolo, chairman of the affair; F. N. Belgrano, president of the Fugazzi Bank; D. A. Forrester, general manager of the Tribune; Mayor John L. Davis, Commissioners Frank Colbourn and Albert E. Carter, District Attorney Ezra Decoto, Superior Judge Fred St. Sure, Dr. E. Barbera, Chief of Police James L. Drew, Joseph H. King, president of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce; Blanks Everett, secretary of the Chamber; Mrs. J. Barlasclini, Mrs. F. Traverso, Mr. and Mrs. C. Cartasso, P. Treglia, John Perona, George Bruno, manager of the Oakland branch of the Fugazzi Bank; M. Martino, Joseph L. Bobba, C. Duvall, A. Morra, G. J. Vitale and many others.

MANY FROM GENOA. Many of the guests hailed from Genoa, the city of which Ambassador Ricci is a native. P. Treglia, one of the guests, was the ambassador's neighbor in Genoa many years ago, and the chairman, Dr. Queirolo, told of how he had first known Ambassador Ricci thirty-five years ago when the latter was a brilliant young lawyer in the home town of Christopher Columbus.

In response to speeches delivered by Dr. Queirolo, the mayor and F. N. Belgrano, the ambassador made an address in which he reviewed matters pertaining to immigration to the work done by the Italians in California and to the general world situation. The ambassador vigorously denied that his countrymen the Anglo-Saxon element and he are less capable of assimilation than stated.

"The state of California furnishes the best proof that the Italians can be assimilated with the best results."

Discussing the tendency to confuse "Americanization" with what he called "Anglo-Saxonization," the ambassador said:

"Americanization is one thing, Anglo-Saxonization is another. To desire one is just. To pretend the other is absurd. The Americans of Anglo-Saxon origin have virtues and qualities which I admire, but the Americans of Latin descent also have virtues and qualities peculiar to their origin. It is possible that there is in this world a human race whose only prototype we all must imitate and which alone monopolizes the gifts which make a model people and the virtues which serve to attain the well-being of the body on earth and the soul in Heaven?"

Discussing the matter of tariffs, the ambassador said:

Here you are ultra-protectionists. Take for example, lemons and olive oil, which are among the two most important articles

Russia a Scrap Heap, Berlin Paper States

BERLIN, May 9 (By the Associated Press).—A significant warning against undue optimism in connection with the Russo-German treaty is sounded by the Boersen Zeitung, which declares the rehabilitation of Russia cannot be attempted single-handed by Germany, or in the spirit of the treaty signed at Rapallo.

The Boersen organ, which views soviet Russia as "one gigantic scrap heap," designates her "as the greatest producer of rubbish, remnants and spallage the world has yet seen," and asserts she is only able to pay at the present "with scrap iron and other waste," a fact which should be carefully borne in mind.

WARRANT FOR WOMAN.

belonged to the Catholic church. Premier Facta, president of the conference, said he would support the claim of the Holy See, adding he believed the other delegations also would be favorable to compliance with the Vatican's desires.

MARSHAL JOFFRE SAYS AMERICA WELCOME LEADS

PARIS, May 9.—(By the Associated Press.)—Marshal Joffre spent the first morning after his return to France from his world tour at his headquarters at the War college greeting friends. He will be received by both President Millerand and Premier Poincaré later in the week, to give an account of his travels.

Speaking to the Associated Press, the hero of the Marne said: "Throughout my 30,000 miles of travel I everywhere received a most cordial welcome, but it remained for America to outdo every other country in warmth of greeting."

I was the recipient of boundless hospitality from your gracious president and your generous people. Madame Joffre, our daughter and myself return our deepest thanks to all who made our journey across the American continent so pleasant and profitable. We should love to make the trip all over again."

AUTO DRIVER BLAMELESS.

ALAMEDA, May 9.—O. R. Winloe, 1238 College avenue, was exonerated by a coroner's jury for causing the death of Sitra Abe, 5-year-old Japanese boy, the child ran in front of Winloe's machine and was almost instantly killed.

THUGS TIRE OF 'PAYING CHECKS,' HOLD UP CAFE

LOS ANGELES, May 9.—Victuals are coming high this season," remarked one hold-up man to Richard Paul Jones, when the latter was halted near Seventh and Olive streets. "So the ham and eggs will be on you," added the other hold-up man. They obtained $27.

China 'Disgrace Day' Generally Observed

ANJOY, China, May 9 (By the Associated Press).—"National disgrace day" was observed generally today as a mark of protest against Japan's "twenty-one demands" on China, made in 1915. All places of business and amusement were closed, the schools, guilds, clubs and other organizations uniting in an immense parade and demonstration.

CONFESSION IN POLICE LIQUOR TANGLE OFFERED

6. F. Commissioners Take Up Case of Officer Accused of Taking Bribe.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 9.—Charges that Policeman James M. Rawlins of the Southern Station, who is under arrest, had solicited and accepted money for the protection of alleged bootleg establishments, were officially placed before the Police Commission yesterday by Captain of Police Charles Goff, who introduced a purported confession of Rawlins. Stripling charges against Arthur L. Christensen, another police officer, were not pressed yesterday on account of the government's refusal to have Federal officers testify at the hearing. Charges against Policeman Henry F. Vawter, accusing him of connivance in the theft of an automobile loaded with whisky last December, were also filed with the police commission, and the hearing of the case set for May 15. The search for the alleged accomplices of the accused officer is being continued. The police commission will hold a special session next Thursday night to sift the charges against Policeman W. F. Pennessy, George Becker and Ellis Miller, who are accused of agreeing to aid in the illegal removal of liquor from a bonded warehouse in Filbert street.

50 Oakland Men's Names On L. A. Ku Klux Klan List

More than fifty residents of this city who have business interests in San Francisco are members of the Ku Klux Klan. This announcement was made by District Attorney Matthew Brady today following the receipt of a list of 250 klansmen living in the bay region from Thomas Lee Woolwine, district attorney of Los Angeles. Brady said that he is not going to make the list public until he has checked over the names, which are said to have been taken from the membership lists seized by the Los Angeles authorities from Grand Goblin Coburn during the investigation in the south.

Meanwhile Grand Master Samuel E. Burke of the Masons has sent a letter to all of the Masonic bodies in California and Hawaii, over which he has jurisdiction, announcing public disapproval of the Ku Klux Klan and the "invisible empire."

MASONS BAN ON KLAN. The letter, which is approximately 800 words in length, holds that the Klan tenets are inimical to the tenets of true Americanism and Masonry, and therefore have no place within the organization and the lodges are instructed not to admit klansmen into Masonry. The letter from Grand Master Burke is as follows:

To the Masters, Wardens and Brethren of All Lodges in the Jurisdiction: Through the public press and otherwise, the grand master has been advised of the activities in California of an organization known as the Ku Klux Klan, or the Invisible Empire, membership in which is said to be confined to "native-born American citizens who believe in the tenets of the Christian religion," but so secret in its workings that even the names of its members are not known to the public.

This "Invisible Empire" pretends that its chief purpose is to aid in the enforcement of the law of the land; but its practical workings appear to be to interfere with the orderly and lawful administration of the processes of our courts and the duly constituted officers of the law; a society which skulks and strikes in the dark, under the cover of "native-born American citizens who believe in the tenets of the Christian religion," but so secret in its workings that even the names of its members are not known to the public.

It seeks, by secret methods, to rectify what its leading members may conceive to be improper conduct on the part of people not members of the Klan, and to interpret the rules of conduct to be observed by non-members, without regard to the courts or the duly authorized officers of the law, and to judge and condemn and execute its mandates by the distasteful use of sheeted and hooded klansmen whose identity is hid from the light of orderly government by the people—in fact, and indeed, an organization assuming dangerous military and judicial powers and authority over all whose conduct or whose views do not coincide with those of the Klan.

It matters not how patriotic may be the purpose of individual members. The practical operations of the organization do not coincide with the principles and ideals upon which our government was founded, nor upon the principles and ideals of Freemasonry. Our forefathers founded this government upon the basis of law and of order and obedience to constituted authority, and Masons are bound by all the teachings and all the traditions of our institution to openly and avowedly sustain the duly constituted administrators of the law of the land, and to discountenance mob activities.

Respect for the law is enjoined upon our initiates as the first lesson in Masonry. They are taught to be exemplary in the discharge of their civil duties, by never proposing or countenancing any act which may have a tendency to subvert the peace and good order of society; by paying due obedience to the laws under whose protection they live, and by never losing sight of the allegiance due their country.

It has been charged that members of our fraternity have in some instances become allied with this Ku Klux Klan, and it is even charged that in some localities the Klan is fostered and encouraged by Masons; that the night-riders who usurp the lawful processes of the courts, and who whip and scourge and tar those under the penalty of their decrees, are Masons. The grand master does not believe such stories to be true. And he does not presume to proscribe the membership or activities of Masons in any lawful society or organization; but he is opposed to combinations of men who usurp law; he is opposed to societies which condemn without due trial, which pretend to execute the mandates of any secret tribunal, and he will not aid those of our honorable fraternity who are domiciled within the state of California, or who are members of California lodges, to a strict accountability for any attempted usurpation of the law of the land.

Freemasonry stands for law and order, and decent government. It stands for the United States of America, the best government ever devised by man. It stands now and always and openly for the orderly conduct of society and for the upholding of the lawful and regular administration of the legal processes of our courts.

The grand master has faith in his brethren, and confidently submits this letter to the craft in the hope and belief that he may and will receive from each lodge in the jurisdiction full assurance that all of our lodges and all of our brethren concur with him in maintaining the orderly government must prevail, and that mob law shall not be given countenance.

Fraternally yours,
SAMUEL E. BURKE,
Grand Master.

Attest: JOHN WHICHER,
Grand Secretary.

In regard to the list of Ku Klux Klansmen received from Los Angeles, District Attorney Brady said that he has not made up his mind whether or not he will present the list to the grand jury.

"In my hurried reading of the list," said Brady, "I did not see any familiar names. My chief purpose in getting the list was to have it on hand in case of any occurrence which might call for an investigation."

streets of Taft last night, failed to materialize. No speakers appeared to denounce the Klan.

The city trustees of Taft considered the anti-masking ordinance, passage of which was asked by District Attorney J. R. Dorsey, but it was not passed, according to the reports from Taft. Taft is the only city or town in the county which has refused to pass the ordinance.

Six hundred persons crowded the city hall at Taft when the trustees met for their regular weekly meeting. The crowd made no demonstration. With one exception every member of the city council and the city clerk belongs to the Ku Klux Klan.

In Bakersfield, Mayor E. L. Hougham appointed a committee of three members of the city council.

AD. CLUB TOLD OF POWER MEASURE

How low water rates affect the industrial growth of a city was told by William J. Locke, who addressed members of the Oakland Advertising Club at their weekly luncheon at the Hotel Oakland today.

The California water and power act was designed to enable the rest of the state to do what has been done in California, where their water rates are one-third what they are in the bay cities," said Locke.

If the generation of hydro-electric power be restricted in the hands of private industries or corporations, it means that they will have a control over all industries, all railroads—state, international and transcontinental—through all lighting systems of the state, because it is generally admitted that within the next ten or fifteen years every wheel that turns and every lamp that burns in the state of California will derive its energy from hydro-electric power.

Another feature of the program was the exhibition of the color plates from which the Ad Mesquite poster was printed, and a talk by Edgar N. Simpson, the maker.

FIRE WIPES OUT IOWA NEWSPAPER

DES MOINES, Ia., May 9.—Fire, starting in the paper storage room in the basement, destroyed the building and equipment of the Des Moines Daily News. The fire started at 3 a. m. and gained rapid headway.

All fire apparatus in the city was called out and firemen fought the

Threats and Protests Mark School Contracts

Following a number of spirited arguments which broke in new and then on an evening devoted to the awarding of contracts for more than a hundred items of school expense, the board of education today has almost cleared its purchasing slate.

On a number of bids, when for one reason or another the lowest offers were not accepted, protests were voiced from the gallery and excited discussion took place on the floor. On most of the 112 items, however, the awards were given with mechanical precision and to the firm presenting the lowest figure.

Together the winning bids totaled $50,000, approximately. The contracts concerned paper towels, stencil paper, 63 barrels of floor oil and 500 gallons of kerosene. Tons of copy or drawing paper, cases of rubber bands, truckloads of water colors, several thousands of gross of pencils or penholders and thousands of dozens of inkstands, rulers, erasers and such things were decided upon almost without comment.

Concerning paper towels, Director Campbell urged that the contract go to the Zellerbach Paper company, because it is an Oakland concern, although its bid is $25 higher than the West Disinfectant company. An agent for the latter company then argued against this.

OAKLAND IS FAVORED. "Now that I am the lowest bidder I deserve the award," he insisted. "There is no complaint of the quality of our product. If you do not give your contracts to the lowest bidder, why have all this competition?"

"We are pledged in a way to favor Oakland firms where other things are equal," said Campbell. "We will give four hours before submitting it."

Loss to the News will be approximately $200,000, while other occupants of the building will lose $25,000.

was $800. Another company bid on paste, but in the same way, its price was $200. But the specifications demanded "corks." It was then argued that tin cans are poor containers for paste. Paste experts spoke at some length, but finally it was agreed to re-advertise for bids on a new basis, this time for "paste" without specifying what container shall be used.

COAL CAUSES ROW. Threats of recourse to law were made when the board awarded the coal contract to the American Block company at $12,210. This company was the third from the lowest bidder. The East Bay Coal company, at $11,770, and the Rhodes-Jameson company, at $11,390, were both lower.

"We are entitled to the contract," said Paul Jones, vice-president of the East Bay Coal company. "We want American block coal," said Commissioner Baccus. "Yours is not as good."

"I'll back up my statement that it is," retorted Jones. Later when the vote was taken to accept the American Block company's award, Jones, who imports an Australian coal, demanded a list showing which way each school director voted on the subject.

"Register your objections in writing to the board," suggested Chairman Boyle.

"I'll do no more," said Jones. "I think I can stop this business. If you had cancelled all bids I would have been helpless, but you have given the award to the third from the lowest bidder. I will take whatever action I deem proper under the circumstances."

Other bids for supplies caused wrangles among the board members, though the low bidders on most of the 112 items were given the preference.

The board, at the end of the long session, heard a complaint from residents near Highland Annex, who pleaded for better school facilities.

BUSINESS MEN'S LEAGUE ENDORSES COMIC OPERA PLAN

Hartman and Steindorff Give Details at Luncheon Meeting.

Ferris Hartman, the comedian, and Paul Steindorff were guests of honor at yesterday's luncheon meeting of the Business Development League at the Hotel Oakland. Both talked of the comic opera company which opens in Oakland in the near future.

At the conclusion of Hartman's talk the members of the league pledged their support to the comic opera project.

Hartman told his hearers that comic opera had proved a great success in the East, but that heretofore Oakland had not had an opportunity to enjoy real comic opera because of the long jumps between cities.

"We will give Oakland one of the best comic opera organizations in the country," he promised his hearers. "If the coming season is a success we will probably see a new theater here in Oakland."

"I need the support of the business men of Oakland to make the project a success," he told his hearers.

In addition to pledging their support to the members of the club subscribed to twenty season tickets, L. C. Frazer, president of the league, presided at the meeting.

Writer Addresses

Legion Luncheon

Dr. James H. Heady, magazine writer, philosopher and humorist, was the speaker at the regular weekly luncheon of Oakland Post, No. 5, American Legion, at the Peerless Cafe, yesterday.

Dr. Heady entertained the Legionnaires with a number of humorous stories and anecdotes, and also advised the former service men as to the simple methods of classifying any individual in order to get acquainted with him.

"The plan is simple," said Heady, "and easy to remember. All men fall into one of five classes, which classes are: Cynic, critic, courteous, careful, and conscientious. It takes but a short time to find out in which class any man belongs, and when you have classified him you are acquainted with just what sort of a man he is, and can act accordingly."

Each week sees a larger crowd of Legionnaires present at the luncheons, the weekly programs being very interesting to the former service men.

Next Monday's luncheon will be in charge of Frank Colridge, who will present "Colridge's Songbirds."

GENOA MEET HELD HOPE OF AMERICA

The Genoa Economic Conference is the hope of business men in the United States. Its success will mean the revival of manufacturing and the development of raw materials, eastern business men are convinced. This is the attitude of business leaders in New York and other eastern centers, according to Daniel Magee, merchandise manager for Kahn's, who returned today from a six-weeks' buying trip to New York.

The success of the Genoa conference will mean credit for Germany, and credit for Germany will mean an immediate market for manufactured goods and raw materials produced in the United States, in the opinion of business men, asserts Magee.

Business conditions generally are on the up grade, and merchants and manufacturers throughout the country are looking forward to an active summer and fall, the Oakland man states.

"Right now all eyes are centering on the Genoa conference," said Magee. "The renewal of credits to Germany will mean a market for American goods, with a resultant revival in manufacturing and the disposal of raw materials."

Retail conditions in the Southern States are showing marked improvement, according to Magee. All varieties of crops are to be popular during the summer, with indications pointing to rough weaves as the popular wearing apparel during the fall and winter, Magee said. High grade domestic and foreign merchandise is available at reasonable prices. Six buyers accompanied Magee on the eastern trip.

S. F. THIEF GETS $12,000 IN GEMS IN HOTEL LOBBY

Display Case of Shelves at St. Francis Looted by Daring Crook.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 9.—Four pieces of jewelry valued at $12,000, the property of Shreve & Co., were stolen from a showcase in the lobby of the St. Francis hotel last night. The police are attempting to establish the identity of the thief through the finger prints left on the case.

The theft occurred about 10 o'clock and according to the police, followed several days' work on the part of the thief. The case is in a prominent place in the lobby and is entirely of glass with two glass shelves which are about shoulder-high.

In this glass cabinet small pieces of white glass are fitted into metal cases. On the lower shelf were seven pieces—two rings, four brooches and a wrist watch. The thief loosened one of these small partitions and scooped up the jewels as far as his arm would reach.

The case contained about $50,000 in precious gems and was insured by Lloyds of London. The exhibit has been on view in the lobby since last December.

MISHAP LIABILITY ON STREET FIXED

The city cannot pay damages arising because of any accident on a public street, but the city official in charge of that street can be sued if he is believed to be negligent.

This opinion was delivered to the city council this morning by City Attorney Leon E. Gray as the result of an accident on Thirty-eighth avenue, when a woman stepped into a hole in the pavement and sustained injuries. The council filed the communication and will await further action.

Girls Are Kidnaped; Four Men Sought

LAWRENCE, Mass., May 9.—City and state police are today searching for Lillian Johnson, 19, and the four men who are alleged to have abducted her and Marian Brander, 16, both of Lawrence. Serious charges will be made against the men if apprehended, according to the police.

The Johnson girl is still missing but the Brander girl escaped from an isolated camp on Canobie lake, N. H., and told a story of violence at the hands of the four young men, whose invitation to an automobile ride the girls accepted Sunday afternoon.

WENDERING WILL RUN FOR SENATE

An expected development in local politics came today with the formal announcement of Assemblyman Arthur A. Wendering of Berkeley that he is in the race for the State Senate in the sixteenth district.

The seat to which Wendering aspires is the one now held by A. P. Anderson, of Oakland, who has made no announcement as to whether he will run for re-election. Edgar S. Hurley, of the assembly, has announced, informally, that he will run for the Senate in the district and there are many who believe that the contest will be confined to the two. The district comprises that part of Oakland lying west of Broadway, San Pablo avenue and Adeline street, all of Emeryville, Berkeley west of Adeline and Alameda streets, and including all of Albany, Northbrae and Cragmont. In his statement Wendering says:

"The best legislative session was characterized by the benefits to the service men and women, school teachers, and the general public in the accomplishment of which I was privileged to take an active part. The best proof of future service by a legislator is the way in which he has represented his district in the past. I offer my candidacy for State Senator on my record of service in the Assembly.

"The wishes of the district are well known to me as I was born and reared here and my parents and grandparents were pioneers of those portions of Oakland and Berkeley which I now seek to represent. The movement against the Japanese invasion of California has always found in me a staunch supporter and I shall strive to the utmost of my power to secure an effective Japanese Exclusion Act.

"If elected I shall endeavor to merit the appreciation of the voters of the entire senatorial district in the same manner that I have that of the assembly district, from which I was re-elected without opposition."

crepe
leghorn
celophane
candy cloth

One may choose something strictly tailored or something frivolous indeed. A huge bow makes an effective trimming, as does a wreath of highly impossible fruits. Or, like the lady in the picture, one may insist upon an imposing parrot to grace her loveliest hat. Formerly priced at 10.00 and up to 45.00—
5.00 to 22.50

Jersey Frocks—Unusually trim little knockabout frocks, in charming styles for school and sports wear. Some have the modish elastic waistline—others are youthfully two-piece. Various patterns and colors. Formerly priced to 15.00—

WOMAN BINDS SELF, ENDS LIFE

WILLOWS, Calif., May 9.—Mrs. Pearl Forrester, 36, employed as a saleswoman at a local department store, was found dead at her home yesterday. The woman was found with her ankles and her left hand strapped to a bed. A note was found which said she had taken poison in an effort to end her life and that no one else must be blamed.

According to acquaintances of

Japanese Problem Told Kiwanis Club by Gleason

If California can settle her Japanese problem in the right way it will be a credit to the state and a real contribution to all humanity, according to George Gleason, author and historian, who spoke at yesterday's luncheon of the Kiwanis Club. Gleason lived in Osaka, Japan, for seventeen years. The woman, she had been dependent for some time. Her husband left her five years ago and she had since remarried, but lived alone.

Two resolutions were adopted by the club. One of these endorsed the proposition of a bond issue for acquiring Redwood Peak and adjacent lands for park purposes. The other provided for a permanent policy of acquiring all lands adjacent to the Skyline Boulevard for park purposes.

JAPANESE PROBLEM.

"It is estimated that there are now between 70,000 and 100,000 Japanese in California and it is a real problem," Gleason said. "It is a branch of a vast, fundamental problem—the race problem. In 'The Rising Tide of Color' it is pointed out that the colored races, including the Chinese, Japanese, negro and red races, greatly outnumber the whites. But the solution offered in the book—that of keeping the colored races submerged through a closer consolidation of the white races, is not the true solution. The real solution lies in application of the principles of justice and righteousness."

The speaker said there are four facts which furnish a key to the interpretation of Japan's place in the Orient to her actions in the past and probably to the things she will do in the future.

FIRST IS HISTORICAL.

"The first of these facts," the speaker said, "is a historical fact, dating back to the year 1854 when Commodore Perry visited Japan. When acquaintance was established between Japan and the western nations, it was the power of militarism that impressed her mind. The second fact is geographical, referring to the relation of Korea to the seacoast of Japan. It has been said that Korea is like a dagger pointed at the heart of Japan. Another fact was the group of events in Europe and Asia that brought about what the Japanese considered the 'Terror of 1898,' when it seemed that the other world powers were closing in on Japan. The fourth fact is one of economics, based upon the fact that Japan has no large natural resources. Japan must have access to the markets and raw products of the East."

The speaker said that Japan had made five great blunders in recent years. The first was in 1914 when she went deeper into Shantung than Germany had gone. The second, and greatest, in the speaker's opinion, was in 1915 when she made the twenty-one demands on China, which would have reduced China to a mere province of Japan.

MISTAKE IN SIBERIA.

The third mistake was in Siberia, according to Gleason, who said that when our troops went into Siberia we were instructed to trust Japan in every particular. The Japanese foreign office said that about 7000 troops would be sent into Vladivostok. We sent about that number also. But two other Japanese armies were quietly sent to other parts of Siberia at the same time.

Another mistake was in handling Korea by rule of the sword instead of the power of the heart. The fifth mistake in the speaker's opinion, was her insistent demands at Paris concerning her Shantung rights.

"Many of these problems have been righted and most of them are being righted," the speaker declared. "There still remain three unsettled problems—the Korean problem, the Manchurian problem, Japan's lease on Manchuria lasting for another 100 years, and the Japanese problem in California."

Tahiti Will Force Land Cultivation

PAPETE, Tahiti, May 9.—Uncertainty of land ownership and boundaries in Tahiti is one of the causes for a survey now being undertaken by the colonial government here. Many fertile parcels of land lie uncultivated because ownership is not well established or boundaries not accurately known. After ownership is established it is reported that the government intends to enact laws penalizing lands left uncultivated, at the same time offering assistance to planters who improve their property. The survey will later be extended to other islands of the colony.

FLOOD MENACES $9,000,000 GRAIN CROP IN TULARE

Melting Snow Endangers the Great Acreage Nearly Ready for Harvest.

TULARE, May 9.—With 14,000 second feet of water flowing in Kings river ranchers in Tulare lake bottom are making desperate efforts to prevent the inundation of 365,000 acres of wheat, virtually ready to harvest, and which it is estimated will have a market value of $9,000,000.

The only outlet for the water is through irrigation canals and ranchers are using every possible inch of water on their fields to prevent breaking of the canals. A rise of one foot will start the overflow, it is said. Only cold weather in the mountains, stopping the melting of the snow, can prevent serious damage, old residents declare.

If you see it in The TRIBUNE tell them so.

Flapper Hailed As Bright Spirit Of New Period

LOS ANGELES, May 9.—James Oppenheim, poet, author and psychologist, has come to the defense of the flapper.

What the flapper "really is," according to Oppenheim, follows:

"She is the first flash of color of the new age.

"She marks the breakup of America's fundamental puritanism.

"She blossoms out like a gay young savage, but she is seeking beauty and art.

"This color means the expression of human feeling.

"She is the savage part of this new color outbreak.

"She is in revolt against puritanism.

"She is wholesome, delightful and gay.

"She is alive with the spirit of the new age, which seeks fuller self-expression."

FRENCH TURNING SAVAGE.

PARIS, May 9.—Pessimistic sociologists lament that France is returning to savagery. In support of this assertion they cite the fact that there are now 71 bull-fight clubs in France, as against 14 before the war.

FATHER'S DEATH IS FORETOLD IN CHILD'S DREAM

VENTURA, May 9.—Three days ago the little daughter of Jose Camarillo dreamed she saw her father on a pier, surrounded by white flowers. The dream made a great impression on her and the relatives to whom she told it. So when a deputy sheriff called to tell them the body of Jose Camarillo had been found on Santa Cruz island, a few miles off Ventura, they were not surprised. A coroner's jury decided he had died from rheumatism.

Piedmont Scouts Have New Clubroom

Piedmont Boy Scouts are "at home" this week in their new clubroom at the Piedmont Community Center following the completion of the decoration of the quarters.

Bert Johnson, decorator, headed a group of painters and paper-hangers from the Master Painters Association who donated their services and time in decorating and executing the decorative plan, and the Chris Nelson Company, Inc. local paint and wall paper house, contributed all the materials.

This is the second donation of this sort made within recent weeks by the local decorating fraternity, the first being the decoration and "painting up" of the Baby hospital.

CANADA VOTES TO BAR ORIENTALS

OTTAWA, Ont., May 9.—The House of Commons last night adopted a resolution calling for restrictive legislation against Oriental immigration into Canada. The vote stood 130 to 35, making a majority of 94 in support of a resolution which, introduced by a British Columbia member, originally called for total exclusion of Asiatics, and was amended at the request of the administration to substitute, "effective restriction" for the "exclusion" clause in the motion.

Premier King explained that while Canada was opposed to the penetration of Canadian lands and industries by Asiatics, there were such considerations as the trade agreement between Canada and Japan to be thought of in the framing of the restrictive measure.

SURGEON'S REWARD.

LONDON, May 9.—Old documents found here show that Dr. John Arden, leading surgeon of the fourteenth century, charged fees and also compelled his patients to pay him £200 a year as long as they lived.

ATTORNEY WILL VISIT HOME AND MAKE ADDRESS

RICHMOND, May 9.—Clare D. Horner, local attorney and generalissimo of the Richmond Commandery, Knights Templar, will leave about May 20 for his home town, Spencer, Ia., where he has been invited to deliver a commencement address to his alma mater on May 26. Horner will speak on the subject, "America for Americans."

Horner graduated at Spencer High school in 1904, later attending Morningside College, University of Chicago, where he took his A. B. He majored in law at the University of California.

SELLS BUSINESS.

RICHMOND, May 9.—Harvey W. Clear has sold his sheet metal business at 244 Seventeenth street to William Grutsh of Oakland, it was announced yesterday. Clear plans to take a vacation and will visit his relatives in Illinois. He has been in business here for many years. He is active in the Richmond Den of Lions and is identified with the Builders' Exchange.

SNOW IN PORTLAND.

PORTLAND, Ore., May 9.—Snow flurries, hail, rain in turn, formed features of an unusual day in May weather here yesterday. A minimum temperature of 33 degrees Sunday was reported.

FIGHTS RAGE ON ULSTER FRONTIER SAY ADVICES

Violent Battle in Progress
Near Clady Between Republicans, Orangemen.

BEIRFART, May 9.—(By International News Service).—Heavy fighting has broken out between Ulster constabulary and detachments of the Irish republican army along the Ulster frontier, said advice received here this afternoon. One outbreak was reported from Strabane.

A violent battle was said to be in progress near Clady between Orangemen and special police on one side and republicans on the other.

There have been continuous outbreaks of violence in Ulster since the armistice was effected at Dublin last week. The armistice, however, was not to cover any part of Ulster, as it was signed only by representatives of the Irish free state army and the republican army and not by any representative of the Ulster government.

Oakland Gets Voters' League Convention

By EDNA B. KINARD.

Oakland has been chosen the convention city of the California Civic League of Women Voters. The annual meeting is announced for Friday, May 12, the auditorium in Alhambra temple, Thirteenth and Harrison streets, lending the accommodation to the all-day meeting.

Besides the election of officers, there will be interest in the discussion of legislation to receive attention from the female voters during the coming year. Echoes from the national convention of Women Voters held last month in April will also be heard, the several delegates who went from this part of the state reviewing the programs of work which have been outlined by the parent body.

The following ticket will be offered the northern section for ballot: President, Miss Marion Delany, San Francisco; vice presidents, Mrs. C. B. Whittey, Palo Alto; Mrs. A. C. Tammen, San Jose; Mrs. Alfred McLaughlin, Fresno; recording secretary, Mrs. Carl Williams, Oakland; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Franklin Harwood, San Francisco; treasurer, Mrs. Ella F. Towell, Oakland; auditor, Mrs. J. G. Kearney, Alameda; directors, Mrs. P. G. Law, Oakland; Mrs. Anna L. Saylor, Berkeley; Mrs. Norman Scofield, Palo Alto.

American Citizenship Day will be observed in Fruitvale. Women's club on Thursday afternoon, May 18, with a program of song, addresses and exhibition of the handicraft of foreign born women who have come to make their home here.

The keynote of the California Federation of Women's Clubs for the season has been adopted as the inspiration for the final meeting of the year in the eastern organization. Mrs. Edna Ford James, district chairman of citizenship, will be the principal speaker.

A group of Indian songs will be sung by Mrs. Florence Kayer assisted at the piano by Mrs. M. B. Bibby. Hiawatha's Childhood and Wooing will be read by Miss Perry. Cello numbers will be contributed by Miss Helen Reynolds. The exhibit of foreign women's work will include Portuguese, Mexican, Indian and Samoan Islands.

Mrs. Albert E. Carter was re-elected president of Park Boulevard club at the annual meeting held in the Caronde Hotel (Lakeside park), yesterday. An all fresco luncheon assembled several score of clubwomen for the final program of the year. Those who will be associated with Mrs. Carter on the board of directors are: Vice-presidents, Mrs. E. C. Robinson, Mrs. Carl Williams, Mrs. C. H. Taylor; secretary, Mrs. J. Wheat; treasurer Mrs. J. A. Wheatley; corresponding secretary Mrs. J. R. McNe; auditors, Mrs. W. C. Steel, Mrs. J. H. Holcombe; historian, Mrs. J. V. Chown.

The new auditorium in Stonehurst school will be opened on Thursday night when the Parent Teacher Association closes an active year's work by installing the board of directors. A program and dance will conclude the ceremonies. Mrs. Peter J. Kramer, retiring president of Oakland Federation of Mothers' Clubs, will be the installing officer. Those who will take over direction of the activities for the coming year are: President, Mrs. William Galt; vice-president, Mrs. C. W. Crabb; secretary, Mrs. M. A. Paulson; treasurer, Mrs. Mae Gootter; delegates to Oakland Federation, Mrs. Alma Ward, Mrs. C. W. Crabb.

"The Relation of the Business World to the University Student" will be discussed by Miss Lucy Stebbins, dean of women in the University of California, at the Thursday luncheon of the Business and Professional Women's Club, meeting in their quarters, 1741 Broadway. The program is arranged in cooperation with the "Girls Everywhere" movement. Mrs. Gladys Barndollar is president of the active club of 250 members.

Officers will be nominated for District No. 1, Alameda County Nurses' Association, at the meeting called for tomorrow night in the Young Women's Christian Association building. Plans will be perfected for a card party which will be held during the early summer. A program of music is announced following the business session.

To celebrate the anniversary of the opening of the Frances E. Willard Home for Girls in Industry, the Woman's Christian Temperance Union has announced a luncheon for Friday in the unique institution, 1076 Twelfth street.

Mrs. Susanna Gomez, executive secretary of the Travelers' Aid Society, and Mrs. Paul Raymond, president of the San Francisco W. C. T. U., will be the speakers of the day. Reservations must be made by tomorrow night with Mrs. L. Crosby, Lakeside 338.

The absence of Mrs. W. H. Marsden, president of second district, California Congress of Mothers, from California has caused a postponement of the executive meeting from Thursday of this week to Thursday, May 18. The all-day conference of leaders will be held as usual at Hotel Marlborough, San Francisco. Mrs. Marsden is in attendance upon the National Congress of Mothers in Tacoma, Wash.

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

If Mixed with Sulphur It
Darkens So Naturally
Nobody Can Tell.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite as good as any one is living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at the drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, turning one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delight the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance, which is so attractive. —Advertisement.

QUEER FEELINGS AT MIDDLE AGE

Women Should Know how Lydia
E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound
Helps at This Trying Period

Sheboygan, Wisconsin.—"I was run down, tired and nervous. I could not even do my own housework, could not sleep at night and all kinds of queer thoughts would come to me. Finally I gave up going to the doctor and a friend told me of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After the first bottle I could sleep better and I have kept on improving ever since. I have taken seven bottles now and am so happy that I am all over these bad feelings." —Mrs. B. LANSER, 1639 N. 3rd St., Sheboygan, Wisconsin.

For the woman entering middle age Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound can be of much benefit. During this time of life certain changes take place which sometimes develop into serious trouble. Melancholia, nervousness, irritability, headache and dizziness are some of the symptoms. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a natural restorative, especially adapted to assist nature in carrying you safely past this time. Why not give it a fair trial?

WRIT ASKED IN BABY FARM ROW

Petition for a writ to prevent interference by officers with her baby farm at 460 Broadway Terrace, was filed by attorneys for Mrs. E. F. Edwards in the United States District court in San Francisco yesterday. Monday was set for argument of the lawyers of both factions.

The home used as a baby farm, in the heart of one of Oakland's most exclusive residential districts against the law, according to opponents is the one involved in a real estate transaction which resulted in the arrest, about two months ago of Mrs. Edwards, who is now waiting trial in Superior court on a charge of embezzling several hundred dollars from Mrs. Rosa Levine of San Francisco.

On April 22 a warrant was obtained for Mrs. Edwards' arrest by Mrs. May B. O'Brien of the State Board of Charities on a charge of unlawfully conducting a baby farm. At that time officers went to the home to serve the warrant and take the woman into custody. The woman pleaded with them to allow her to stay in her home over night in order that the nine babies there might be cared for. The warrant was not served.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Checks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, yellow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, indigestion, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep them fit, 15c and 30c.—Advertisement.

Easiest Way to Remove Ugly Hairy Growths

(Beauty Culture)

Here is a method for removing hair from arms, neck or face that is unfeeling and is quite inexpensive. Mix a thick paste with some powdered talc and water and spread on hairy surface. After 2 or 3 minutes rub it off, wash the skin and every trace of hair has vanished. No harm or inconvenience results from this treatment, but be careful to get genuine talc and mix fresh.—Advertisement.

Activities of WOMEN

Smart Wedding At Ambassador In South

One of the smartest weddings of the past fortnight was that of Miss Anne Roberts of Spokane, who, on April 28, became the bride of Guy Schuster, a son of the late Mr. Schuster, of the police room of the Ambassador hotel. Quantities of white roses and palms formed an improvised altar. One hundred and fifty relatives and friends were assembled for the nuptials, the ceremony being performed by Rev. George Davidson, pastor of St. John's Episcopal church. The bride, a stunning blonde, wore a lace and white satin ensemble bordered in seed pearls. Her tulle veil was edged in rare old lace held in place at the coiffure with a circlet of pearls. Orchids, lilies of the valley and bride's roses were in the shower bouquet.

Miss Mildred Finley of Spokane was maid of honor and wore a frock in apricot tones and carried an arm bouquet of yellow roses and delphiniums.

James W. Roberts, a brother of the bride, was best man. The ushers were George White of Pasadena and David Stewart. Roberts is the fiancé of Miss Edith High, daughter of Mrs. William H. High of this city.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Worden Ballinger Roberts of Spokane. Mr. Roberts gave his daughter into the keeping of the groom.

Volunteer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Guyton of Los Angeles. When the bridal couple return from their wedding trip the middle of next month they will be at home to their friends at 135 South Wilton place.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Tomlinson, 14 W. Tomlinson and Miss Billa S. Hart are registered at the Hotel del Coronado at Coronado Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wiles are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a little daughter May 1 in their home. The little one will be christened Betty Ann.

ALUMNAE LUNCHEON IN BERKELEY.

Alumnae of The Merriman School will hold their annual luncheon at the Whitecotton in Berkeley the afternoon of May 18. It will be a notable affair attended by about seventy-five of the graduates of the school.

Mrs. Millard J. Layman will entertain Thursday at her home in this city for a coterie of intimate friends.

Mrs. William H. Langdon was the guest of honor this afternoon at a luncheon given by Mrs. William J. Dallas at her home in Piedmont. It was one of the many smart affairs that mark the going away of the young matron this month.

TEA AT PRELIER HOME.

The Misses Clara and Olive Preuler of Berkeley were hostesses this afternoon at their home in Berkeley, in compliment to their sister, Mrs. E. F. Cykler. About forty of the younger maids and matrons will be guests at the J. Preuler home in Russell street. Mr. and Mrs. Cykler and their little son recently arrived from Honolulu.

Mrs. Frank Keller and Mrs. C. Donalds will be hostesses at a supper party this evening in honor of Miss Alice Dibble, who will spend the summer in Seattle. Tomorrow the traveler will share the honors with Mrs. Anna Eaton, betrothed of William Bryan at a tea which Mrs. Thomas Watson will give.

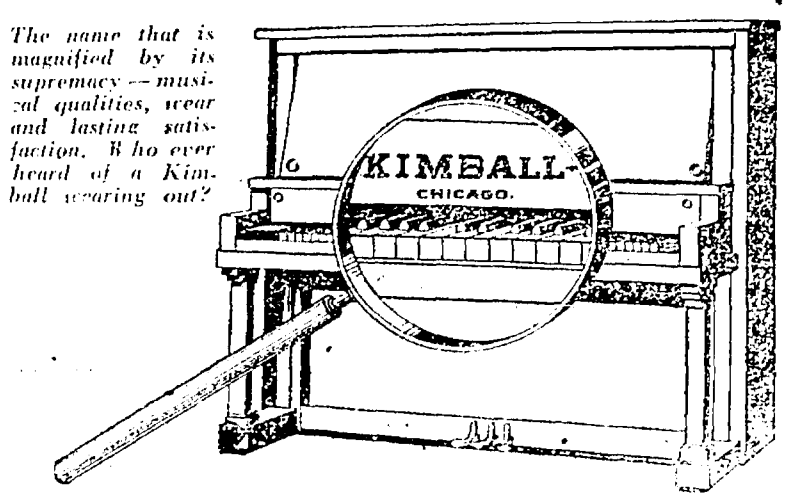

ATTENDANCE AT ASSAR GRADUATION.

Mrs. J. C. Somerset has left for the East to attend the graduation of her beautiful daughter, Miss Hope Somerset from Vassar. Mrs. Somerset went via Oregon in order to visit her mother, Mrs. William Goethe in Portland. Miss Somerset is the fiancée of Donald Walsh and the only daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Somerset, who gave up their home in Berkeley to reside in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ross motored to Yosemite to be away for a fortnight. Ross has just arrived from Hilo in the Hawaiian Islands and joined his wife and son at the George Ross home.

Saturday evening the marriage of Miss Mildred Savage, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Savage of Filbert street, and Florence Raymond, Carlson took place in the First Presbyterian church at 8 o'clock in the presence of one hundred guests. Rev. Frank M. Shaley officiated. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Jennie Carlson of this city. Miss Manuella Edwards, Miss Lillian Jorgenson, Miss Alice Forsyth and Edna Carlson were bridesmaids. The maid of honor was Miss Ruth Savage, sister of the bride. Robert Webber served as best man.

A. R. Savage gave his daughter in marriage. The bride wore a

BUILDERS WILL HOLD BIG RALLY

Plans for the organization of a permanent citizens' committee on industrial relations will be under discussion at a banquet to be held by the Builders' Exchange of Oakland tomorrow.

An invitation has been extended to every employer organization in Alameda and Contra Costa counties. Speeches will be made by W. E. Whalin, president Builders' Exchange of Oakland; W. H. George, president, Builders' Exchange of San Francisco; M. J. Kuhl and Attorney Harrisop S. Robinson.

The feasibility of the organization of such a committee will be discussed at length and it is possible that the foundation of such a committee will be laid.

L. Cameron Fraser, who is in charge of the entertainment features of the evening, has arranged for Ferris Hartman and members of his company to give a half hour of "moments from favorite comic operas."

Stanford Man Made Columbia Trustee

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, May 9.—Word was received here today of the appointment of Jackson Reynolds, Stanford '96, as a trustee of Columbia university, succeeding the late A. Barton Hepburn. At Stanford Reynolds was a member of the football team and later was a member of the law faculty. He took advanced work at Columbia and was a lecturer in law there. Reynolds was recently made president of the First National Bank of New York city, after a rapid rise in that institution.

The attendants upon the bride wore organdie frocks in the pastel shades. Master Dudley Manlove served as ring bearer, and little Barbara Feissler as flower maiden. The couple will make their home in Oakland upon their return from their honeymoon.

MAN FLOUTING SUMMONS FROM COURT JAILED

"Because he said he was too busy to obey an order summoning him into court, Antonio Furtado was sentenced five days in the county jail, where," Superior Judge Quinn told him, "you will not be so busy."

Furtado was taken before Judge Quinn today on a bench warrant issued Saturday, after he had returned a court citation with the words "Go to the devil" written across it.

Furtado was cited to explain why he had not paid his wife any of the $150 a month temporary alimony allowed her by the court several months ago. He has been arrested three times for his refusal to obey the alimony order.

Today he explained why he had disobeyed the order. "If my wife lives with me, I will support her—if not, I won't," he declared.

"Then you'll stay in jail till you do," Judge Quinn told him.

Furtado said he was in this court, and also for not responding to the citation last week.

BLACKMAIL GANG HEADS CONVICTED

LOS ANGELES, May 9.—Jack K. Rattow, alias Jack Randolph, and Frank Sergio, alleged by post-office inspectors to be leaders of an international band of blackmailers, were found guilty in the United States District court here yesterday of having attempted to extort $25,000 from F. W. Braun, wholesale druggist of Los Angeles and Pasadena.

Braun received three letters demanding money several weeks ago. The first two asked for $20,000. He notified federal, county and city officers, and a "dummy" package was "planted" behind a billboard. The third letter demanded $25,000, the additional $5,000 being "penalization" of Braun for his "treachery."

A short time afterward, when another "dummy" package was "planted" at the same place, Rattow, Sergio and six other men were arrested after a gun battle. The other six were released.

Breuner's remember! NO INTEREST Charged on Phonographs

It has heretofore always been customary among phonograph dealers to make an interest charge on all instruments that were sold on time payments. But hereafter PHONOGRAPHS WILL BE SOLD ON THE SAME BASIS AS EVERYTHING ELSE IN THE STORE—viz., without interest. If you are now buying a phonograph on time, no more interest will be charged.

Consolidation Sale! Still Going On at H. Breit's

Our local store is double stocked as a result of closing our San Francisco store and moving its stock to Oakland.

Because we believe it will cost us more in every way to carry this stock than to mark it "way down" and take our losses now, because we must put our finances in shape for next season's buying, because we must put our store in shape to accommodate new arrivals—we are quoting "give away" prices on every garment in our stock. The following are typical.

ENCAMPMENT TO WESTERN G. A. R. BODIES OPENED

Veterans and Allied Patriotic
Orders in Annual Session at Riverside.

RIVERSIDE, May 9.—Hundreds of civil war veterans and members of the Woman's Relief Corps and allied patriotic organizations are here at the opening day of the fifty-fifth annual encampment of the Department of California and Nevada, Grand Army of the Republic. Preparations have been made to receive 2500 delegates. The encampment will come to an end next Saturday.

William H. Noll of Los Angeles, department commander, and his staff, are present. Past department commanders here include E. L. Hawk of Sacramento, A. H. Dugoff of Oakland and R. C. Martin of Youngville.

Dr. Lewis S. Pitcher of New York, national commander-in-chief of the G. A. R., is expected.

A feature of the encampment will be a parade Thursday morning.

R. R. Strike in India Cause of Disorder

CALCUTTA, May 9.—Disorders have resulted from the strike of employees of the East Indian Railway which began February 23 in consequence of a disagreement over wages. The strikers at Anasol burned the temporary quarters occupied by the workers there and this started a riot between the workers and the strikers, two of whom were injured. Magistrates at Allahabad and Dinapore, have prohibited gatherings of more than ten men because the strikers were holding mass meetings and intimidating the employees who wanted to work.

More than half the Calcutta suburban trains, which usually carried about 30,000 passengers each way daily, have been discontinued owing to the strike.

The secretary of the Indian Labor Association has called for a conference of railway delegates to be held at Anasol to discuss terms of settlement which have been offered by the East Indian railway.

Mexico Unfavorable To New Time System

MEXICO CITY, May 9.—Recent inauguration by the government of telling time, by which 12 midnight becomes "24 o'clock," has not met with favor, except in a few government offices. There has been a general reversion to the old system of dividing the day into two parts of 12 hours each.

Senator France Is Against Bonus

WASHINGTON, May 9.—Senator France, Republican of Maryland, announced last night in a formal statement that he would vote against the soldiers' bonus.

"It is my duty to do so," he said, "and I know that every soldier in my state and in the country will praise me when I do so. Those who endured the fires of war will not respect those who cringe and skulk away before the fires of criticism."

Pimples and Freckles

Beauty Bleach will easily remove freckles, tan and other skin blemishes. This delightful flesh-tinted cold creamed compound is easy to use, clears the complexion quickly, is harmless to skin and will not grow hair. Black and White Beauty Bleach when used with Black and White Soap will give you complexion satisfaction. Recommended and sold at all toilet goods counters.

Mother Gray's Powders Benefit Many Children

Thousands of Mothers have found MOTHER GRAY'S SWEET POWDERS an excellent remedy for children complaining of Headaches, Constipation, Feverishness, Stomach Troubles and Bowel Irregularities. These powders are easy and pleasant to take and excellent results are accomplished by their use. Used by Mothers for over 30 years. Sold by Druggists everywhere.

Berkeley Contractor Divorced by Wife

Because her husband was unsympathetic toward her ambitions to become an operative star, but wanted her instead to be a "kitchen slave," Mrs. Marion E. Schmidt, wife of J. W. Schmidt, Berkeley contractor, was awarded an interlocutory decree of divorce by Superior Judge Bernard J. Flood yesterday in San Francisco.

Mrs. Schmidt, who resides at the Alhambra Apartments, 860 Geary street, San Francisco, charged cruelty. A property settlement was made out of court. Schmidt did not resist the action.

The Schmidts were married in San Francisco December 18, 1913, and separated on February 4, 1920. Mrs. Schmidt is well known in the bay region and has sung in public on many occasions. Before her marriage she was Marion Merle, a great-granddaughter of General Martinez of the well known family of early Spanish history of California.

Hospital Planned in Tuberculosis War

CHICAGO, May 9.—A deed for 21 acres of land at Colorado Springs, Colo., has been given to the Board of Hospital and Homes of the Methodist Episcopal church, by citizens there, as a site for a national hospital for tuberculosis, according to word received here today by the board.

A board of directors for the new institution will be selected soon. Bishop Charles L. Mead, Denver,

Electric Lights for St. Louis Golf Course

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 9.—An electrically lighted nine-hole golf putting course is being constructed by the North Hills Country Club here. Officials of the club declare the miniature course is being installed to encourage night playing.

Study of Bible in School Advocated

HILMAR, May 9.—Resolutions advocating that the association join with other workers who are endeavoring to introduce the reading of the Bible in the grammar schools of the country, and the study of the Bible as one of the high school courses, were adopted here at the session of the California branch of the Swedish Evangelical Covenant of America. The committee which drew up the resolution was composed of Rev. Oscar Wenstrand, Rev. C. A. Nelson and Rev. Nels Peterson. Officers were elected as follows for the ensuing year: Rev. G. A. Anderson, president; Rev. Nels Peterson, vice-president; Rev. P. A. Wellander, secretary; Rev. E. N. Train, assistant secretary; Rev. H. B. Nordquist, treasurer. Rev. Anderson was also elected a member of the license committee of the Swedish Evangelical Mission Covenant of America.

Mastodon's Bones Unearthed, Belief

WICHITA FALLS, Tex., May 9.—What are believed to be fragments of a mastodon's bones have been unearthed by oil drillers in Gray county, according to reports here. The fragments were found imbedded in a "strata" of dry sand and are said to be large enough to indicate they were a part of a skeleton of a pre-historic monster.

50,000 TO ATTEND PEASANT SESSION

SOFIA, Bulgaria, May 9.—Fifty thousand delegates will attend the yearly congress of the National Peasant Party in Sofia next month. Passenger and freight traffic will be suspended for a whole week in order to give the delegates prompt transportation.

Thousands of home dwellers will be ejected to make way for the huge influx of peasant politicians that will find its way to the capital. A man's home in socialized Bulgaria no longer is his castle. It belongs to the government quite as much as to himself and can be requisitioned any time without a penny's compensation.

Representatives of peasant parties in Yugoslavia, Rumania, and Poland will attend the congress. The secretary of the Green International also has been invited. Alexander Stamboulsky, Bulgarian picturesque premier and peasant potentate, will preside over the deliberations of the vast assemblage.

Hamlin Garland to Revisit Old Home

TOWA CITY, Ia., May 9.—Hamlin Garland of New York will revisit the middle west, from which he derived local color for a number of his novels, on the occasion of the fifteenth annual meeting of the Mississippi Valley Historical Association here May 11 and 12.

Garland, while in this region, will address several state universities, and will be in and about Chicago, where at one time he made his home for two weeks. The novelist's career is linked with this state by his graduation from Cedar Valley Seminary at Osage, Ia.

Mistress—Oh, Jane, and I told you to notice when the jam boiled over! New Maid—So I did, mum. It was a quarter past 11.

NEW PRISON TO HOUSE MEN BY GRADE SYSTEM

JOLIET, Ill., May 9.—An iron hand and mere confinement "make convicts and no more; a progressive scale of privileges and men," according to John L. Whitman, superintendent of Illinois prisons, under whose supervision the new state penitentiary at Joliet, near Chicago, is being constructed. The architecture of the building is designed to facilitate application of the "Illinois idea," or progressive merit system.

The plan provides that the prisoners may pass through the following stages: confinement under strict prison discipline; increasing opportunity to merit more confidence on the part of prison authorities; positions of trust within prison walls; life in cottages outside the prison; but under the supervision of prison authorities; parole; freedom.

The system is an outgrowth of psychological study conducted by Superintendent Whitman, the late Warden Everett J. Murphy, and a staff of experts during the last twenty years.

Garland—Binks has been telling me about me again. Binks—He might do worse. He might tell the truth about you.

PRISON ESCAPES MUST FACE TRIAL

SAN RAFAEL, May 9.—The four convicts at San Quentin prison who escaped recently and were recaptured will face trial for prison break in the Marin county superior court. Captain Myron Clark of the prison guard having sworn to complaints charging each of the men with a felony.

The men are: William Murphy, Lee Renfro, William Seago, and Fred Turner. Murphy escaped from San Quentin last Friday and was recaptured the following day in San Rafael, while the other three took part in a sensational prison break on April 7, when four prisoners escaped on forged passes and fled in Dr. L. L. Stanley's automobile, later being recaptured in Santa Clara county after a thrilling chase. The men will be tried before Superior Judge Edward I. Butler.

PIONEER BROKER SUCGUMBS IN S.F.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 9.—Henry St. Goar, pioneer member of the San Francisco Stock and Bond Exchange, senior member of the stock and bond house of Pollitz & Company and owner of large sugar plantations in Hawaii, died at the Dante hospital here yesterday. St. Goar was born in Frankfurt, Germany, in 1855. He is survived by a widow and four children—Mrs. J. Hubert Meo, Fred H. St. Goar, Charles E. St. Goar and Miss Helen St. Goar.

PATTERSON FUNERAL. DAYTON, O., May 9.—Funeral services for John H. Patterson, founder and chairman of the board of directors of the National Cash Register company, who died aboard a train en route to Atlantic City Sunday, will be held at the Patterson home here tomorrow.

You and Three Others May Pay the Price

Your dentist will tell you that four people out of every five past the age of forty have Pyorrhea.

And thousands of younger persons are victims of this dangerous enemy.

Are your gums sore or tender? Do they bleed when you brush your teeth?

If so, go to your dentist at once and start using Forhan's For the Gums immediately.

For bleeding gums are an early symptom of Pyorrhea which quickly loosens the teeth, until they drop out or must be pulled, and causes poisonous pus pockets to which scientists trace many serious ailments.

You can prevent Pyorrhea, or arrest its course, by the consistent use of Forhan's For the Gums in sufficient time.

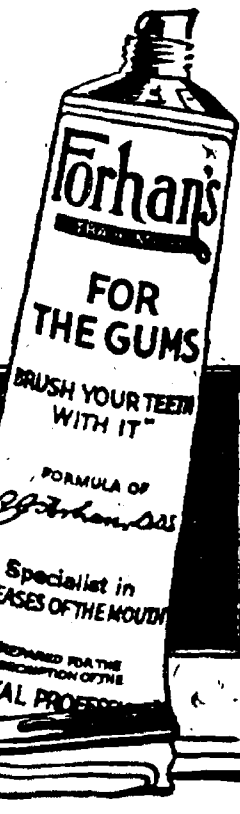

Brush your teeth with Forhan's twice a day or oftener. It will keep your teeth and gums in a healthy condition.

Remember—four out of five are caught by Pyorrhea because they are neglectful. Start using Forhan's For the Gums today. 35c and 60c tubes at your druggist's.

SCHOOL BOARD PLAN APPROVED

CENTREVILLE, May 9.—Decision to call a special election, at which the voters of Washington township may decide whether or not to issue bonds in the sum of $150,000 by which to construct a modern high school building, was reached at a meeting held here last night.

The meeting, at which were members of the Country Club, Men's League, board of school trustees, board of grammar school trustees and representatives of civic and fraternal organizations of the township, reached a new high community enthusiasm and the proposal to bond the district for the school was met with intense applause.

The action last night is the result of a long educational campaign waged by the women of the Country club to arouse interest in school affairs.

Four Local Artists to Per- form in San Francisco on Friday Evening.

Four local artists, Hazel Nichols, pianist; Lena Frazee, mezzo-soprano; Miles A. Dresken, violinist, and Esther Horady, harpist, will give a joint recital at the Scottish Rite hall in Van Ness avenue, San Francisco, on Friday evening for the benefit of the Friday Center.

The Friday Center is a nursery clinic and Americanization center in San Francisco and all funds from the concert will be turned over to the management to further the interests of the clinic.

Miss Nichols was the winner of the piano contest for the Northern California Federation. She is a graduate of the conservatory of the College of the Pacific in San Jose and was a pupil of Tina Lerner, the great Russian pianist. She has appeared about the bay at numerous affairs both as soloist and as accompanist.

"TIZ" FOR TENDER SORE, TIRED FEET

Ah! what relief. No more tired feet; no more burning feet, swollen, bad smelling, sweaty feet. No more pain in corns, callouses or bunions. No matter what ails your feet or what under the sun you've tried without getting relief, just use "TIZ."

"TIZ" draws out all the poisonous exudate from the sores which puff up the feet; "TIZ" is magical; "TIZ" is grand; "TIZ" will cure your foot troubles so you'll never limp or draw up your face in pain. Your shoes won't seem tight and your feet will never, never hurt or get sore, swollen or tired. Get a box at any drug or department store, and get relief for a few cents.—Advertisement.

IF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTHER

Take Salts to flush Kidneys and neutralize irritating acids

Kidney and bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, searing sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent, uric acid drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.—Advertisement.

NEW ARMORY TO BE OPENED HERE THURSDAY NIGHT

National Guard Units Will Parade to Building for Ceremony.

National Guard organizations from Oakland, Berkeley, Piedmont, Livermore and San Francisco will be on hand next Thursday night to take part in the opening ceremony at the new armory. The ceremony will be attended by members of the City Council and officials of the various commercial and civic clubs of Oakland. The National Guard units will proceed to the new armory in parade through the downtown business section.

Orders for the parade, issued by Colonel R. E. Millett through the office of Adjutant-General J. J. Horne of the California National Guard, call for a parade from Eighth and Broadway north to the new armory, where military exercises will follow. Colonel David P. Barrows, commander of the 159th Infantry, and General J. J. Horne will deliver addresses concerning the purpose and aims of the National Guard.

On Thursday evening the building will be thrown open for public inspection. The public is invited to attend the opening ceremony.

In addition to the new quarters provided for the National Guard of Oakland, Batteries A and B of the 143d Regiment of Field Artillery, two units in the First Separate Battalion of Field Artillery, commanded by Major Harry F. Huber of Oakland, maintain stables, drill fields, target ranges and all military equipment for instruction purposes at Leona Heights. There are sixty-five horses at the Leona Heights range, for which a detail of ten men are on duty for

SHASTA COUNTY INFESTED WITH CATERPILLARS

REDDING, May 9.—Roads littered with caterpillars are reported to be numerous in Shasta county. The plague seems to be worst in the vicinity of Palo Cedro, Millville, Bella Vista and Buckeye. At Lamona and Delta the "bugs" are swarming through the woods, crawling everywhere. It is remarked that there are no caterpillars on the west side of Stillwater creek, while on the east side caterpillars carpet the earth for miles.

Sailor Held for Attempted Theft

Harvey Kacy, a sailor stationed on the receiving ship at Mare Island, was arrested last night by Police man W. L. Gallagher after a chase through Lakeside park, during which several shots were fired at the fugitive.

Gallagher saw Kacy attempt to take a grip out of the automobile belonging to T. C. Macdonald of 27 Postman street, Piedmont. When Kacy saw the officer he dropped the grip and started to run.

He is being held for investigation.

Enlistments for Batteries A and B are being received twice each week. Enlistments will be received until the two organizations leave for Camp Lewis for the annual summer encampment. Battery A enlists men on Tuesday night, while Battery B enlists men on Thursday night. Former service men are given the privilege of enlisting for one year, until June 1. After that date they will be required to enlist for the full three-year term.

Horse of 52 at New York's Show

NEW YORK, May 9.—Clover, 52-year-old horse, showed his teeth, flapped an apprehensive ear, and settled himself on exhibition at Madison Square Garden yesterday, the central figure in the art show at the Masonic exposition. Veterinaries assert that Clover's teeth not only prove his age, but are the cause for it. The set is said to be wonderfully preserved. Clover was once a racer.

Uncle Wiggily

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE BOB CAT'S TAIL

"Take my tail out!" howled the Cat.

When Uncle Wiggily hopped downstairs in his yellow striped pajamas one morning he saw Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzey at the telephone. The muskrat lady housekeeper was saying:

"No, Mrs. Wiggible. I'm sorry, but I can't run over this morning. I have so much to do—Uncle Wiggily's breakfast to get, and I must use the carpet sweeper and get over some time later. Surely, I'd dearly love to see it. Oh, I know it must be a perfect dream. Goodbye!"

"Hum!" thought Uncle Wiggily to himself, as he winked his pink nose as he stood on the stairs listening to what Nurse Jane was saying. "Hum! Something is going on over at the house of Mrs. Wiggible, the duck lady. I think. What is it, Mrs. Fuzzy Wuzzey?" he asked, as the muskrat lady turned away from the telephone.

"Oh, how you surprised me!" exclaimed Nurse Jane, holding her paw on her neck ribbon so it wouldn't flutter too hard. "I had no idea you were down. I'll get your breakfast at once." "Now, don't be in a hurry, Nurse Jane," went on Uncle Wiggily, kindly.

"Oh, but I must give you your breakfast of broiled honey cakes," said the muskrat lady, and then I have to use the carpet sweeper. Just a moment!" interrupted Uncle Wiggily with a low and polite bow. "I couldn't help it, what you said on the telephone just now, Jane, my dear, the funny said, 'of course, I wouldn't clean the house for you, but I couldn't help it. Now, if you want to, hop right along, I can get my own breakfast.'"

"Well, I did want to run over to the duck lady's house," said Nurse Jane. "She has bought a new dress."

"Then hop right along!" laughed the funny muskrat. "Have a look at it while it's new. I'll get my own breakfast. I've done it myself." "Oh, thank you so much," exclaimed Nurse Jane. "I won't be long. She hurried off to get her broom, but all at a sudden she stopped, came back and said:

"Oh, I can't go cleaning and I was going to use the carpet sweeper on them," said the muskrat lady. She seemed much disappointed.

"You run right along!" laughed Uncle Wiggily. "I'll do the cleaning after I get my breakfast." "Oh, can you?" asked Nurse Jane with a pleased smile.

"Surely I can," said the funny. "All I have to do is to push the carpet sweeper over the rugs. The brush inside will pick up the dirt from the floor." "Yes, it is easy," agreed Nurse Jane. "But I wouldn't ask you to use the sweeper."

"No, I offered myself," Uncle Wiggily said. "Run along now, here's the duck lady's new dress for you."

So Nurse Jane ran along, and she and Uncle Wiggily finished their breakfast. He got out the carpet sweeper.

"Oh, it isn't any work at all to push this box on wheels over the floor," laughed Uncle Wiggily, as he hopped to and fro. "If I can do this everything will be lovely."

"Oh, you want an adventure; do you?" suddenly cried a voice at the door. Turning around, Uncle Wiggily saw the Bob Cat Cat standing there, curling up his whiskers and sticking out his red tongue.

Tribune Clarice Patterns

Child's Set of Clothes.

(No. 1349.)

For the tiny girl's dress-up outfit this would do very well. The dress is gathered to a yoke and an inverted plait at each underarm seam gives the fullness necessary. Embroidery flouncing could be used but a more simple dress that would probably wear better and would be just as attractive could be made of batiste, nainsook or some other such material and trimmed with a tiny edging of lace. The one-piece drawers and petticoat are included in the pattern.

The pattern cuts in sizes 1/2, 1, 2 and 4 years. Size 2 requires 2 1/2 yards 21-inch flouncing with 3/4 yard edging for dress. The petticoat requires 1 yard 36-inch material with 2 1/4 yards edging. The drawers require 1/4 yard 32-inch material with 1 1/4 yard edging. Price 15 cents.

Odd Bits of Humor

The Minister (reprimanding the local scandal-monger)—I have always found old Mr. McNab a deeply religious man, and I think it is very wrong of you to accuse him of lack of faith. The Gospel—Ah, well, sir, I'm a suspicious of a man that talks about his faith and then wears braces and a belt at the same time.

Professor Redmond (putting the results obtained from the inflection of the voice)—Did I ever tell you the story of the actor who could read a menu so as to make his audience weep? Freshman (strangely in moved)—He must have read the prices.

Employer—Is it true that when the clock strikes 6 you put down your pen and go, even if you are in the middle of a word? Clerk—Certainly not, sir. When it gets so near 6 as that I never begin a word at all.
"Why, Tommy!" exclaimed the Sunday school teacher, "don't you say your prayers every night before you go to bed?" "Not any more," explained Tommy. "I used to, though, when I had to sleep in a folding bed."

Should a Woman Tell?

Hawthorne Emery, after battling with herself for several days, decides to marry Dane Merrill without telling him that she has once been in love with another man. She discovers that Dane is very narrow in his ideas about women, and that he is looking to her to exert an influence over him, his little butterfly sister, Julie, who she has once been in love with.

Hawthorne Emery, after battling with herself for several days, decides to marry Dane Merrill without telling him that she has once been in love with another man. She discovers that Dane is very narrow in his ideas about women, and that he is looking to her to exert an influence over him, his little butterfly sister, Julie, who she has once been in love with.

CHAPTER XIV

The Lie

The fact that I stood for my independence of action once with Dane means that I shall have to go on with it. No matter how difficult it is for me to dispense him, I must make it clear that my attitude was not merely one of stubbornness and a desire to have my own way, but a course that I had mapped out for myself.

I long to do what he wants me to do, but I want to keep my individuality. I feel that the only way for a woman to be a man's mate, and I can't talk about it to Dane for I feel that he would not understand. He would laugh and call me fanciful and tell me that he would always love me. But it is the thing in a woman that he has not quite mastered that fascinates him most. Any woman who has thought about the subject will admit the truth of this.

Dane is very eager for me to be friendly with his mother, and although I don't like Mrs. Merrill, I am ashamed of myself for feeling as I do. And I am determined to conquer my dislike.

I went to see her yesterday. I was hoping that Julie would be there, but she was nowhere to be seen, and Mrs. Merrill received me alone. I felt so young and foolish in her presence. She has a habit of narrowing her eyes and compressing her lips the minute I say anything enthusiastic. I feel her disapproval intuitively, and it makes me feel awkward and unlike myself.

"Julie seems to be making a pattern of you," she said to me in her cold voice. "I hope you appreciate what it means to have a girl of her age influenced so strongly by your personality."

"I hope I am 'worthy of it,'" I murmured. "Who is that man you introduced to her?" she asked after a moment of silence.

I wrinkled my brows trying to remember.

He was here to dinner the other evening."

In a flash I remembered. Julie's sweet young voice was echoing in my ears.

"He asked him to dinner, but of course, I had to tell mother a lie about how I met him."

I felt the color rushing into my face under the steady glance of Mrs. Merrill's cold blue eyes. What was I to do? I could not desert Julie and yet if I let Mrs. Merrill believe that I had introduced the two, I would be in a sense responsible for this man I had never suspected of anything.

I was taking a great chance, and I was suddenly angry with Julie for playing such a trick on me. Somehow I could only think of one thing, so I said:

"There was a certain sweet childishness about the expression of her wide brown eyes. Surely she must care a very great deal about this man to have been able to do this thing, and I couldn't go back on her now, I couldn't!"

Yet what could I say to Mrs. Merrill? With a sickening sense of not knowing what to say, I suddenly remembered that I did not even know the man's name. Why had Julie placed me in such a position? Surely, if she had intended to help me, she might at least have told me about it.

All this time Mrs. Merrill had been looking at me, and I was certain now that she suspected something. I suddenly took my courage in my hands and smiled as though I knew at last who it was.

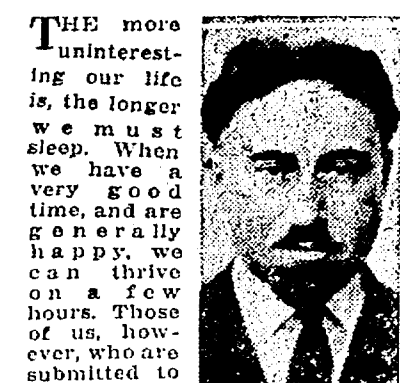

"Oh, yes, Julie told me she had asked him to dinner. Didn't you like him?" My remark sounded false and unnatural. Would Mrs. Merrill see through it and would she say something that would force me to admit that I knew nothing about this man and had never even seen him?

SUPERSTITIONS ABOUT SLEEP.

ANDRE TRIDON

THE more uninteresting our life is, the longer we must sleep. We have a very good time, and are generally happy, and we can thrive on a few hours. Those of us, however, who are submitted to many repressions and whose occupation is monotonous should enjoy at least eight hours sleep some time in the course of the twenty-four.

I say some time because there is a widespread superstition to the effect that sleep before midnight is more beneficial than sleep after midnight. Early to bed and early to rise is to many people the ideal recipe for good health. As a matter of fact it makes very little difference when we sleep. Experiments have been made to determine the depth of sleep. In one case metallic balls were allowed to fall from varying heights upon a mattress, very dangerous for the noise they made was able to wake up the sleeper. In other cases electric currents of varying intensity were applied to the sleeper until he awoke.

All the experiments gave the same results. For the first hour or two our sleep becomes gradually deeper, which means that it takes more and more of a disturbance to wake us up. The greatest depth of sleep is generally reached between the second and the third hours, after which our sleep becomes gradually lighter, and a few minutes before the hour at which we generally wake up the slightest noise, light, touch, etc., puts an end to our slumbers.

But curiously enough all the subjects on whom experiments were made reached the greatest depth of sleep more quickly during the day than during the night. In other words we seem to sleep better during the day than during the night. With a quiet room, properly darkened, we can rest as well at two in the afternoon as at two in the morning.

It is better, however, to have regular hours for retiring and arising. The rhythms of our life depend on our physical and mental regularity in our sleeping habits, which has been called a small brain within the brain to a great strain. Very dangerous for the organism.

Stone Age Odds and Ends

WE have been speaking mainly of the people who dwell in Europe between 20,000 and 300,000 years ago; but do not suppose that Europe was the only place that had a Stone Age. There was a Stone Age also in Asia, Africa, Australia and both North and South America. It lasted for different lengths of time, and did not begin at the same time.

The first people who chipped tools probably lived in Asia. Many of the inventions of which we have spoken were made in Asia before Europe knew about them.

America and Australia were last continents on which the Stone Age survived. The American Indians were living in the later stages of the Stone Age when Columbus sailed over here in 1492. Stone Age people have recently been found on several of the islands of the Malay Islands.

The reason we have so often spoken of events in Europe is simply because scientists have done so much searching in the caves of that continent. Digging in the soil of India, China and other oriental countries may reveal many facts now lacking.

As the European countries, in which caves with human remains have been found are Portugal, Spain, France, Great Britain, Germany, Russia, Denmark, Austria and Italy.

It is amazing how many stone tools have been found. In just one place, beneath a certain cave, 14,000 chipped flints were found. In other caves even more were discovered. "Oh, tremendous!" you might say, "the making of these tools must have been a very important part of their life."

We are printing today two views of a spear-thrower of the Late Stone Age. This instrument is made of bone.

It is believed that it was used in hurling spears. The Australian and Australian natives sometimes use a similar device for making their spears fly more rapidly and evenly.

Notice that the spear-thrower is carved. This is true of scores of other objects of the Stone Age. For many thousands of years man painted and engraved animal pictures on the walls of caves, in a wonderful manner. The time came, however, when this art work ceased. We are not sure what was the reason for the change, but perhaps the cave men had edged out the old inhabitants.

How the Forest Supplied a Drum, will be the subject of our next chapter.

Kitchen Economics

Fried Mush. Fried mush with country sausages and fried potatoes makes a justly famous New England breakfast, which tastes just as good in any other part of the country, providing the mush is made right. Put two quarts of water in a large pot, add a level teaspoonful of salt, a tablespoonful of sugar, and a small bit of butter. When the water is boiling, stir in slowly a pint of yellow cornmeal, stirring steadily. Cook slowly but evenly for from half to three-quarters of an hour, then turn into a shallow pan that has been wet with cold water. When the mush is cold and stiff cut in thick slices and fry in hot fat. Good drippings will do. Serve on a hot dish and use maple syrup or honey with the mush or just a little of the sausage gravy.

Sponge Corn Cake. Bring one quart of rich milk to the boiling point, then turn it over a pint of yellow cornmeal. Add a lump of butter and a heaping teaspoonful of salt and a teaspoonful of sugar. Cook slowly but evenly overnight, and in the morning beat it light and add two beaten eggs. Pour the mixture into two buttered earthen baking-dishes and bake about thirty minutes.

Bananas. Scald two cupsful of yellow cornmeal with enough boiling water to moisten it, cover, and let stand for a half-hour. Add four well-beaten eggs, two cupsful of milk, a teaspoonful of salt, two tablespoonfuls of melted butter, a teaspoonful of sugar, a cupful of flour and two teaspoonfuls of baking-powder. Beat all smooth, and turn into well-greased shallow pans and bake in a brisk oven.

Mrs. Asquith is lecturing in the United States on "People I Have Met." Some of the people in question are wondering when they are going to hear the last of it.

Things have just about reached the pole when there's no telling where the feller who steps out on business'll end up. Lafa Bud has got so he kin drink or keep his $14.

Geraldine's SHOULDER

Listen, World!

HERE'S a good yarn. C. D. Tribune of Ukiah, Calif., tells it, and it's loaded for bear:

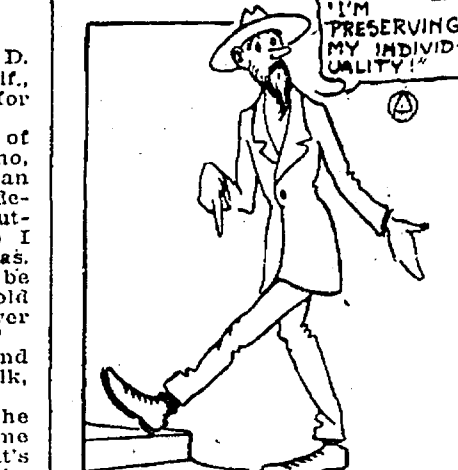

"I was standing in front of the postoffice," said Tribune, "when I noticed an elderly man standing at the edge of the sidewalk with one foot in the gutter. He seemed worried, so I asked him what the trouble was. 'One of my legs seems to be shorter than the other,' he told me. 'It's the first time I've ever noticed it. It has me worried.'"

"Well, why don't you walk with both feet on the sidewalk, then?" I asked him.

"That's just exactly what the doctor up at the asylum told me to do," he answered, "but that's the way everybody else walks and I'm afraid that if I do I'll lose my individuality."

"Which surely does fit nicely into contemporary stuff in our seething age. We're all out to express ourselves, to 'put our message over.' We've formed a fine contempt for all standards. Anything that rises above the level of Main Street Uniformity is jeered out of court. We must be ourselves. We must be Different. We must be Individual. And we don't mind going to any limit to prove it—even to standing with one foot in the gutter and the other on the pavement."

There's nothing more rare and powerful than true individuality. Each person has a particular message to express and it's his duty to express it. But you can't express messages by doing freak things. Spectacular protests get you nowhere, for protests are merely destructive. And your contribution to civilization must be constructive or you're only an amusing sideshow. The best plan is to use the conventions and conveniences which are part of your inheritance from the ages, as they were intended to be used. This will save you time and effort and will make people trust you.

You can't get far in any reform unless people do trust you. Keep both your feet on the pavement—but stick your head as far into the stars as you are able. In that way only will you find news that is of value to humanity and be believed when you start to tell it to the rest of the gang.

Does "Universal Mind" become peeved? "Shukokur Muzzi" says it does. If so, I hereby announce that I'm off Universal Mind for keeps. However, I don't think that Shukokur Muzzi is right. He weaves an elaborate theory but I believe it's based on a wobbly premise. However, since he has as good a right to his theories as I have to mine, he's got to go.

"My Dear Geraldine: I trust you will not consider I am trying to monopolize your time and space, but there are some letters printed in your column that I feel called upon to answer, and chief among them all is one signed 'Female Soldier' in today's paper."

"Kindly permit me to do so, inasmuch as your patient explanation of the Female Soldier what an affinity really is. Then she will, perhaps, realize what an awful mistake she has made in so bitterly hating or loving me."

"Female Soldier asks what business a married man has to imagine he loves an affinity? Now, my dear F. S., in humanity there is no such thing as an affinity. The application of chemicals or mineral substances in chemistry is the only real affinity recognizable. You were, perhaps, alluding to soul mates, as mentioned in my book of lectures on the Laws of Attraction, wherein I stated that, as a thought projected from your conscious or objective mind, it is attracted by other thoughts from the minds of others whose spiritual, mental and physical lives are on the same plane as your own. As for the 'soul mates' mentioned, being in harmony with each other form a whole or unit they are then called soul mates. Your spirit or soul is only the cosmic part of the whole projected from the universal mind and millions of these cosmic parts make up the spirit world. Each of them are at some time encased in a body, some in a human body, in human form, such as you and I.

"Now it so happens in the nature of things that universal mind is not always in the same mood. Just as you there are at times emanating from the universal mind cosmic thoughts that do not harmonize with others. The actions of certain planets and their effect upon our thoughts, conditions indicate that universal mind also at times becomes peeved the same as we and the same planetary conditions affect our mind and the thoughts projected at times are not of the highest nor the best.

"Suppose, F. S., that in your own case everything was lovely, peaceful and quiet and you had no worries, my kind, then the thoughts emanating from your mind would be uplifting and elevating. We will consider this one day's work and then on the following day something like a cosmic storm crossed your life line and brought sorrow and grief and anger into your life, then your thoughts would be low and degrading. The thoughts of the first day would not harmonize with your thoughts of the second day. For this same reason no two cosmic parts of universal mind projected under opposite conditions are alike and conditions is not attracted by and does not attract the spirit projected under unfavorable conditions."

"Having given considerable fact our mind and the thoughts projected at times are not of the highest nor the best.

"Suppose, F. S., that in your own case everything was lovely, peaceful and quiet and you had no worries, my kind, then the thoughts emanating from your mind would be uplifting and elevating. We will consider this one day's work and then on the following day something like a cosmic storm crossed your life line and brought sorrow and grief and anger into your life, then your thoughts would be low and degrading. The thoughts of the first day would not harmonize with your thoughts of the second day. For this same reason no two cosmic parts of universal mind projected under opposite conditions are alike and conditions is not attracted by and does not attract the spirit projected under unfavorable conditions."

"I don't say that the man should leave his wife for Brown Eyes. No, he gained the victory over physical conditions and both he and the girl are deserving of some credit for the sacrifice, yet you and a million others do not consider that there is a spiritual side to life. You know only the physical, and your letter is made up entirely of material love and hate. Yet you say you want your mind out of the gutter. Yes, I believe when you really understand that infinite something in the make-up of Brown Eyes that you will concede that she can make even your husband happy. As one of the gang, I assure you that I believe if you, too, came in contact with a person of divine love, you would be able to see some of the imperfections in your own life, of which none of us think we have for we are all human and our spirit or soul comes from the same source.

"And now, Geraldine, please forgive me for this long epistle. I assure you that we are all for you and your page, even if some of us do peevish occasionally, and I believe I am going to join the gang again, so let's cheer up and be happy."

"Sincerely yours,
"SHUKOKUR MUZZI,"
"Specialist in the Unusual."

FUNERAL SERVICE FOR J. R. HANIFY IS HELD TODAY

Millionaire Clubman, Who Met Death in Bay Tragedy,
Is Buried in S. F.

Funeral services for John R. Hanify, millionaire lumber and shipping man of San Francisco, and one of the three men drowned when their sailing yacht capsized off Alameda Saturday night, were held at 10 a. m. today with a solemn requiem high mass at St. Mary's Cathedral, San Francisco. The mass was followed by interment in Holy Cross cemetery, that city.

Arrangements have not yet been made for the funeral of Edward A. Christenson, another victim of the wreck, whose body was recovered off Hayward Landing yesterday. Plans will not be made until the service of his daughter, who is attending boarding school in New York, and will not be able to reach San Francisco before Friday.

All service and activities in the Olympic club in San Francisco ceased for five minutes at 10 o'clock today out of respect for the memory of Hanify. Both Hanify and Christenson were directors of the club.

Yesterday at a meeting of the board of directors of the Olympic club the members created a Edward A. Christenson-John R. Hanify memorial fund, which provides that a day be set apart in each year when the club will entertain as its guests the orphans of the city and county of San Francisco, in whom Hanify and Christenson were interested.

The following men were pallbearers at Hanify's funeral today: George E. Bates, Thomas J. Colman, Fred T. Cooper, William H. Crocker, Judge T. L. Fitzpatrick, Frank J. Foran, L. M. Hoefler, Wm. F. Humphrey, Dr. E. G. McConnell, J. P. Muller, George Tournay, L. A. Weidenmuller.

Embezzler Pleads Guilty as He Is Sued for Death

While Arvil R. Cantua, head of the Oakland Piano Exchange, was pleading guilty before Superior Judge Samuels today to having embezzled funds in order to pay off an attachment levied upon him for debt, an amended complaint filed in Superior Judge Quinn's court made him defendant in a $50,000 automobile damage suit.

Cantua's plea of guilty brought to a sudden halt a trial on the embezzlement charge, during which his family of six children, ranging in age from one year to nine, sat in a line by his side in court.

The charge against Cantua, as presented to the jury by Deputy District Attorney Wade Snook, was that after a piano had been consigned to his establishment, he used the proceeds of the sale, $375, to lift an attachment on his property.

In the damage suit Mrs. Sada E. Young asks $50,000 of Cantua and George W. Young, who she alleges, were responsible for the death of her husband, Thomas J. Young, a government inspector of hulls and boilers. She says the husband was first knocked down by Cantua's automobile, and then run over by a car driven by Young, dying as the result of his injuries.

Following his plea of guilty today, Cantua's case was referred to Probation Officer Leonard D. Compton.

Haiti Agents Rap Letter of Lansing

WASHINGTON, May 9. — The letter of former Secretary of State Lansing made public Sunday night explaining the occupation of Haiti as due to a desire to establish peace and prosperity and block German designs, the executive committee of the Haiti-Santa Domingo Independence Society said in reply is "just such a defense as one would expect from the prime minister of Japan in explanation of the 21 demands made upon China and the treaties growing out of them."

The committee in its statement said Lansing had ignored "the fundamental outrage" in "forcing" on the people of Haiti the armed forces of the United States and "compelling" them to adopt a constitution which alienated the soil of Haiti to foreigners.

Oil Contract Data Is Gathered by Fall

WASHINGTON, May 9.—Information regarding all contracts and agreements entered into by the interior department affecting navigation will be ready for submission to the Senate early next week, Acting Secretary Finney said today. Sending of the data to the Senate in response to a resolution adopted by that body had been postponed, it was indicated, until Secretary Fall's return from his extended tour of Indian reservations and reclamation projects in New Mexico and Arizona, which is expected next Monday.

SAVE RUSSIA'S RAILWAYS ON THE PACIFIC FOR RUSSIA.

With all the uncertainty abiding in the State Department at Washington regarding East Siberia and the position of America's interests in that area, with the Department attempting to suppress public information regarding Japan's machinations against American citizens and to ignore its duty in this connection, there is one phase of our activities in Siberia which never should be forgotten. It was to our credit in its inception; it is possible to see it through to its credit—if we do see it through.

In 1917 the American railway commission to take over and control the operations of the Russian railways in East Siberia was organized. Mr. John F. Stevens, a distinguished American engineer, was made its chief and when the mission arrived in Russia in the same year, it "pledged what to it is dearer than family or life itself, the good faith and honor of its country," in carrying out its work free from ulterior motives.

Have the people of the United States forgotten that they undertook, though their government, to save Russia's railways in Siberia, where they are of such vital importance to the opportunities of American trade in Pacific Russia?

American engineers have been on the job in Siberia ever since they arrived there in 1917. They are not only trying to save the Russian railroads for Russia, but for the rest of the world, and for America and the tie that binds European civilization across the Pacific Ocean.

Four names now are linked together in the fate of the Transsiberian railway: that of Alexander III, who started it; Nicholas II, who built it; Koltchak, who fought for it, and John F. Stevens, who for five years has been trying to save it.

In starting it, Alexander III wrote:—"I have read many reports of the Governor-General of Siberia and must own with grief and shame that until now the government has done scarcely anything towards satisfying the needs of this rich, but neglected country." In building it, his son, Nicholas II wrote:—"To have begun the construction of the line across Siberia is one of the greatest achievements of the glorious reign of my never-to-be-forgotten father." And then he carried it through. It was completed in 1902.

John F. Stevens was the one first selected to build, and he formed the organization which then did build, the Panama Canal to give Asia communication with the lands of civilization on Russia's east. He is at the head of all the foreign interests and influences directed toward saving the line of communication which Russia built to link herself with America and the Pacific.

The Petrograd terminus on the Neva and the Baltic Sea of the Transsiberian railway is the Nicholas station, directly in front of the famous statue of Alexander III on which the revolutionists inscribed the motto: "Liberty, Equality and Fraternity." At Vladivostok, on the Pacific, where Nicholas II as Czarovich "trundled the first wheel-barrow load of earth and laid the first stone," the terminus is a memorial arch in honor of his visit. He had just escaped from Japan with his life, after a Japanese assassin had tried to kill him at Oiso on Lake Biwa, and still was wearing a bandage on his face to conceal his wound. It was at this memorial arch that a Japanese sentry assassinated Lieutenant Langdon, American engineer officer of the cruiser Albany, who was in Vladivostok because America had undertaken to save the Siberian railways for Russia.

Our last hold on Russia's railways is in China, on the section known as the Chinese Eastern, which forms the cut-off across Manchuria. Japan took the China terminus of the Transsiberian on the Gulf of Chihli, in war, and has practically driven Allied and American authority off the Siberian terminus in Maritime Province. The latter place is where Japan worked the outrage against Major Clarke in October last.

There is nothing to be gained in disguising the facts: Mr. Stevens and the ten American Railway Service Corps members which he has with him to conduct the affairs of the president of the Inter-Allied Technical Board are refugees in China. They simply keep two men at Vladivostok under the guns of the U. S. Cruiser New Orleans, which in February replaced the Albany. Japan, using the so-called Merkuloff government as a tool and screen as suits her best, wages a bloody warfare upon America and the other foreign powers and interests, with the definite, concrete purpose of possessing the Transsiberian railway, which is the terminal of both the Pacific divisions of the Transsiberian, namely, the Chinese Eastern and the Amur railways.

Japan well knows the value of the Transsiberian terminals in the reconstruction of Russia. There is no selfish interest that she does not push to prevent the Russian people, and the Western nations, realizing their aim to restore connections of Russian rail communication on the Pacific and reuniting the two ends of Western civilization there.

The greatest opportunity for good to which we can turn our hands will be lost to us unless there is a better understanding in this country, especially on the part of the government, of the issues in East Siberia and the position of the beleaguered Stevens mission.

The career of this mission is a story of retreat, under indifference by the government at Washington and forgetfulness on the part of the public. Civil war drove it out of interior Russia, and Japan and the old imperialistic Russia in her pay have it besieged under the guns of our warships in Vladivostok or deported to Chinese territory.

This seems to be a matter which President Harding could well take up with the Great Powers. International crimes have been committed in Siberia which should draw the Western powers together—the criminal plots of Tachibana against Americans and the Japanese directed piratical expedition along the Kamchatka coast. There is a plenty of compelling reasons for upholding the Stevens mission and seeing the creditable completion of its work; there is only the reason of cowardice for abandoning it and its high purpose to the mercy of Japan.

SAVINGS UNDER THE BUDGET.

Director of the Budget Daves reports to President Harding that under the budget system the expenditures of the government have been slashed $1,600,000,000 and a saving of $250,000,000 has been effected in the business transactions of the government.

This is a satisfactory realization of the order laid down by President Harding early in his administration—"More business in government." Due to the cut in expenditures the costs of the government for the next fiscal year, beginning on July 1, will be over $4,000,000 a day less than the daily cost of the fiscal year of 1921.

Certainly this should convince the country of the value of the budget and the timeliness of its introduction into the nation's business. One and one-half billions less of taxes is a welcome lift on the necessary load the people must carry.

AN ALL-AMERICAN LAW.

A southern newspaper counsels the Democratic members of the Senate to insist upon protection for southern products in the tariff bill. This is typical advice from the "Solid South," because it reflects the sectional, provincial viewpoint.

But the Republican tariff bill, as framed, provides for protection for all American products. It gives no special emphasis to any particular section. Its aim is to protect American industry and American labor as a whole.

The southern newspapers would appear in a much more agreeable light if they insisted upon the protection contemplated in the pending tariff bill. There is no discrimination in that bill in favor of any section or against any section. If the southern Senators and their supporting organs desire merely protection for southern products and unburied foreign competition for northern products, they must prepare for disappointment.

LOANS TO FOREIGNERS.

European writers and leaders have repeatedly accused the United States of "short-sightedness and close-mindedness" because of its caution and reserve in dealing with old-world reconstruction plans. It is doubtful whether these critics appreciate the full extent to which the United States is actually helping industrial and commercial reconstruction outside its own boundaries.

New foreign loans are announced frequently in American financial centers. The total of such loans in 1921 was considered large, but the amount will probably be greatly exceeded this year. Indeed, between January 1 and April 25 foreign offerings in the United States amounted to $514,657,000. Governments, provincial and municipal as well as national, railroad and other corporations are among the successful borrowers in the American money market. Czechoslovakia has just placed an American loan of $14,000,000.

Thus America's surplus of investment capital is being drawn upon by less healthy countries of the old and the new world. Of course, the rates of interest offered constitute an attraction, but the question of security is not overlooked. Any country that really seeks to improve its economic condition by constructive measures, and that eschews aggressive diplomacy or demagogical home politics, experiencing little difficulty in obtaining credits and capital in the United States.—Chicago Daily News.

Check your cures ashore, me lad, And sign up wif Bill and me; The Nancy is waitin' to sail again Off to the whif'prin' sea.

The Red Toonerville.
Sir: It is painful to note, but, indeed, the truth, the whole truth, etc., must needs be told, and the Almanackers may as well know now as later that the Red Toonerville lost in the jousting match at Third and Webster streets with the tin coupe.

Here is the how of it: Skipping along at the usual snail's pace the Toonerville with the skipper himself at the helm elected to cross Third street. Simultaneously a brand new, not dry behind the ears yet, lots of time to learn motorist, decided that he would cross in front of the larger vehicle.

Well, to shorten a long tale, the Red Toonerville hit the tin can, hurtling it from the tracks into a nearby vacant lot, where it joined other less creditable refuse. But—and hereby hangs the tail. The motor vehicle escaped unscathed, but the Red Toonerville was badly banged up what with the fender agley and numerous other mishaps.

It was the only time in the history of the Red Toonerville that Ham neglected his business of garnering gold for Mr. Espey. Immediately the crash came Ham was on the street, getting names, addresses and other data. The skipper came a close second. In all only a few brief moments were lost in the affair and the neighbors got an immense thrill out of it.

The Almanackers should be warned, however, that similar jousts do not end with the Red Toonerville defeated. We do not expect eight o'clock persuasion have not lost faith. And Such an Object.
Sir: The pseudo-psychologist again is with us. This time he pretends to analyze the mentality of college men by asking a series of questions made up of such questions as: Do you drink? Have you been engaged? Who is your favorite actor and actress? Your favorite movie actor and actress? What is your favorite type of beauty? What is your favorite color for a girl's eyes. ## NOTES and COMMENT

The New York Herald seems to think the charge that millions of Liberty bonds are afloat is a joke: "Representative Johnson of South Dakota and Representative Woodruff are the official sponsors for the charge that Liberty bonds in the hundreds of millions of dollars were issued in defective form or in duplicate by the Treasury Department when these issues were sold, and that other great sums in these bonds returned to the Treasury for cancellation were not destroyed but were put on the market again through dishonest persons in the government's employ. These charges have been denied in detail by three Secretaries of the Treasury of two political parties—Mr. Glass and Mr. Houston, Democrats, and Mr. McMillan, Republican."

The Kansas City Times comments on Mr. Bryan's appeal to the President: "Mr. Bryan's appeal to the President to send a representative to Genoa apparently is based on the assumption that all this country need do is to consult and advise with Europe and furnish it what we are fond of calling 'moral leadership.' But if experience has taught anything it is that Europe isn't ready to take advice except under compulsion."

The Brooklyn Eagle makes observations as to the male and female of the species: "The weaker sex always succumbs. There's Lucien Muratore, broken down from worry and ordered to rest indefinitely, after his clashing with a woman impetuous, and Mary Garden, fresh as a peach and looking for more worlds to conquer. By analogy many husbands will understand his vanquishment."

The Modford Mail Tribune notes an Oregon happening: "A Portland lady has been apprehended trying to send her husband to prison so she could skin out with her sweetie, a previous occupant of the institution she desired to house her legal mate. This is not as effective as the six-shooter route, but more original and slightly safer."

The Kansas City Star is non-plussed: "The Ku Klux Klan in Kansas City, Kan., have been making regular Sunday night visits to churches and leaving money in an envelope for the preacher. Ah, come on and tell us the big idea. We give it up."

The Chicago News has a California item: "In California a woman nearly 100 years of age wants to go up in an airplane, although she might approximate the sensation by having her rent raised."

THE UP-HILL STRUGGLE.

It's up the hill to glory in every sort of weather,
It's step-by-step and slip and fall and pull yourself together;
It's slog along and jog along, ahead of you's the city,
It's down, and up to fight again, and give yourself no pity.

It's up the hill to what you want and there's no way of cheating it,
It's bit-by-bit, with pluck and grit and facing care and meeting;
It's wind along and grind along, and stand the burning thirst of it.

Nor count the cost, for he is lost who thinks he gets the worst of it,
It's up the hill to wealth and fame, a long trail and a dreary one,
It's day-by-day along the way, and many a night a weary one;
It's much of pain and little gain, and stand up to the test of it.

It's work and fight both day and night until you get the best of it,
It's up the hill to what you want and there's no way of cheating it,

About YOUR HEALTH

Why Looking Forward Means a Long, Happy Life

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D., Commissioner of Health, New York City.

Nobody wants to grow old. It is a common thing to hear somebody say: "I wish I were ten years younger!"

Three score and ten is the frequently-repeated reminder of the expected span of human life. I object to this limitation, but that is another story.

Think over the list of persons you know who have reached the how they differ in physical appearance, in mental alertness and in sweetness of spirit? Some are old and broken down. On the contrary, some are as young and cheerful and as active as they were at 50. Why the difference?

This is not an easy question to answer, and it must be admitted at once that there are many factors involved. But there is one very definite reason. The mental attitude has much to do with one's state of health at 70 and at all other ages, too.

In a sense, the brain is like a searchlight, and the intelligence directing the light. Its operations depend on the direction of the path of light. The mind dwells on the things and events illuminated by the lamp memory.

But memory of the past isn't the only function of the mind. There are also imagination, vision, calculation, interest in human affairs, devotion to country—all these indicate forward-looking.

You may die from physical disability, but you will never grow old so long as the searchlight of your mind is turned ahead. Forward-looking is the secret of youthfulness.

It is a blessed thing that memory is not marred by the recollection of unpleasant experiences. Fortunately, the pictures of those periods when we suffered are smeared over or completely effaced. Memory travels along pleasant paths. To change the figure again, memory is like a placid stream flowing along with imperceptible current.

There is no power in such a stream. It must meet with obstacles, it must be confined within narrow banks, it must be dammed and retarded in its course—then it develops its strength.

A sheltered life, free from perplexities, protected from every disturbance, big and little, tends to softness, to lack of character and sentimentality of mental vigor. The mind, unoccupied by forward-looking thoughts, dwells in the pleasant fields of memory. It idles away its time and usefulness by lazy indulgence in the atmosphere of the lotus dreamer.

If you wish to keep young, you will keep your searchlight directed ahead. Turn it around now and then for the sake of knowing just where you are, and how much you have progressed. But let its main use be for illuminating the future.

If you wonder enough about how the school in your neighborhood is being conducted you will walk over to it occasionally and take a look for yourself.

What if one of an almanac has you? Go down to the meetings of the almanac and find out. If he doesn't suit you, run for other good man to get the job. Don't settle down to the blissful thoughts of the excellence of the almanac of forty years ago. If they are not better now, have they were then you, in fact, are to blame.

Stop looking backward. To keep young you must look ahead. You cannot settle down to the dullness and monotony of contented old age without giving up to the certainty of early realization of the end you are expecting.

There is no good reason why men and women at 70 should consider themselves "out of the running." Give yourself real problems and real work. Somebody said that if you lift a calf every day you can lift it when it gets to be a cow. Of course, there must come a day when, try as you will, you cannot lift the cow. Likewise, it is true that the time must come when you are through lifting.

Well day, all you have to do is to keep doing the things you always have done. Keep your light flashing forward and make the century mark your goal!

To the Editor of The Tribune:
Dear Sir: Have been keeping a lookout to see if you could print a word to say about the San Francisco recently let by the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Ry. for the construction of two ferry boats.

The point is the contract was awarded the Los Angeles Shipbuilding Co. of Los Angeles. Admitting the bid was lower, seems still that the idea of sending that much Oakland money to another city is not in keeping with the policy of this company's advertising propaganda. The street cars are always placarded with statements tending to give a spirit of patronage among the Oakland people.

This company did well on the shipyard business in Oakland and owe a considerable amount of their business for the past four years to the carrying of shipyard employees. The carrying of men alone to build these two boats would amount to about fifteen thousand dollars in street car fares, considering the amount of transbay travel.

I am employed by a shipyard in Oakland and have heard a good deal of comment on this, and all that it leaves a "bad taste in the mouth" of all concerned with shipbuilding, and detracts some from the appetizing flavor they endeavor to put in their publicity stuff.

$21,075 RAISED
BY WORKERS IN
Y. W. C. A. DRIVE

New teams recruited by the churches filed reports on their first day's work at today's luncheon of workers in the drive of the Young Women's Christian Association.

The workers were named yesterday by the First Baptist church and the First Congregational church and went to work in their districts as an adjunct to the regular campaign organization.

Yesterday the Lions' Club team, headed by C. G. Knight, led the men's list with a total of $107.50 in subscriptions.

Mrs. J. C. Hoyt's team produced $330 in subscriptions, and this put Mrs. Hoyt ahead of the team led by Mrs. Louis Cockcroft. The latter has a total to date of $1523, while Mrs. Hoyt's total is $1726.

Those two teams have been in competition for first place in the women's division.

The colored division rolled up a total of $381 with yesterday's report of $257. The money was collected in West Oakland, among those who profit by the association's work, it was said.

The workers will gather at the association's building for another luncheon tomorrow. Leaders expressed the determination to speed up the work in order to reach the goal. The grand total for the campaign to date is $21,075.

Fred Wolfe Seeks Brother Joseph Here

The whereabouts of Fred Wolfe, whose last known address is given as 425 Twenty-sixth street, Oakland, is being sought by his brother, Joseph Wolfe, chief engineer of the new White Star liner Majestic, which arrives at New York on May 16 on her maiden voyage. The brothers spell their surnames differently.

The missing man was employed during the war as an engineer on the Red Star line steamship Lapland, plying between New York and Antwerp. He left that occupation and came to Oakland, where he was engaged as a machinist in a shipyard. He last communicated with his family in 1920. He is a widower with two children, and is reported to have always been a dutiful father. Telegraphic communication may be sent to the missing man's brother, care of S. S. Majestic, White Star line, pier 59, North River, N. Y.

MOUNTAIN CAMP FUND IS $485.65

Contributions Continue to Come In, Assuring Very Happy Outing for a Host of Needy Deserving Tots

Previously acknowledged... $435.65
California Cracker Co. .... 25.00
L. E. Kelly ..... 25.00
Total ..... $485.65

With two additional contributions, totaling $50, The TRIBUNE'S Mountain Camp Fund for Needy Children today mounted to within less than $15 of $500. There had been no limit set for the fund, for the reason that there is practically no limit to the number of children who are in need of and who deserve this free vacation that The TRIBUNE and Oakland Recreation Department are planning for them with the generosity of Oakland's Good Fellows.

Within about two weeks, the fund, which was started by $156.50 donated by The TRIBUNE, enough to maintain ten children at the camp for two weeks, has grown to almost half a thousand dollars. This amount, it was made known today, however, is not nearly enough to take care of all of the poor children of the city who are in need of two weeks' trip to the mountains to build up their health.

These children, who for two weeks will be the wards of the city at the Oakland municipal camp in the Stanislaus national forest, will be picked from lists presented by the Associated Charities. They will be examined to see that they are not affected with any contagious disease for the camp is not an infirmary in any sense of the word.

It will cost $15.65 to maintain a child of from 5 to 12 years of age at the camp for two weeks and $23.25 for a child over 12 years. The camp opens May 20, and the children's camp will begin June 17, the day after school recesses for summer vacation.

Mrs. Rosborough May Appear in Oakland

Mrs. Joseph Rosborough, whose stage successes in the East have delighted her friends in Oakland society, has been invited to return to Oakland. Fannie Hartman and Paul Steindorff today asked her to take a leading part in the Oakland comic opera season.

The telegram was sent to Josephine Adair—Mrs. Rosborough's stage name—and said:

"Will you entertain comic opera stage engagement, Oakland Auditorium, for summer, opening May 28."

Mrs. Rosborough's success in the East has been great, starting with "Mistake," where she assumed a minor role, and constantly increasing. Her voice and stage presence have both made a hit in the East, and Hartman believes that with the beautiful Josephine Adair in his company it will reach a strong addition to the well-balanced cast.

BILLIARD CHECKS TO MEET.
ALAMEDA, May 9.—R. B. Reuser, Pacific coast billiard champion, will meet Marc Catton, holder of the world's high run record, in a 250-point 18-2 ball game at Catton's, 1409 Park street, Saturday night.

High School Student Rated as Best Girl Rifle Shot in State

17-year-old ANNA POWELL is rated as champion girl rifle shot of the state.

Anna Powell, 17, Wins High Honors in Short Practice Period With Gun.

Anna Powell, 17-year-old junior at Technical high school, is rated as the best girl rifle shot in California and perhaps the youngest markswoman of prominence in the west.

Miss Powell is an honor student at the local institution and took up rifle shooting about two months ago when a girls' rifle class was inaugurated by Sergeant E. J. Elliott, commander of the R. O. T. C.

During these two months she has advanced with such leaps and bounds that she is now acclaimed as the premier markswoman of the Pacific coast. In addition to her shooting, Miss Powell is prominent along other athletic lines. She was captain of the hockey team and is a member of the basketball and baseball teams.

The shooting club at Technical includes about seventeen girls. Rosalie Hagar is president of the group.

U. C. Compelled to Curtail Graduation

BERKELEY, May 9.—Because world records in the size of graduating classes are being shattered, the University of California is forced to break traditions of many years' standing on the campus.

In order to shorten the program at the annual commencement exercises at the Greek theater, May 17, two student speakers have been eliminated. In place of four speakers but two students will be thus honored. One man and one woman will be selected.

Approximately 2200 students will march across the stage of the Greek theater to receive sheepskins. The number exceeds last year's graduates by 200.

Piedmont Woman Granted Divorce

SAN FRANCISCO, May 9.—Discovering four months after her marriage that her husband was wanted by the police and had wedded her under an assumed name, Mrs. Lillian S. Hall of 18 Blair avenue, Piedmont, left Alexander Hall, and today obtained a divorce decree from Superior Judge Deasy.

The couple wedded three years ago in Los Angeles. Mrs. Hall learned, she says, that her spouse's real name was Berceviz and that he was wanted for passing fictitious checks. Since the separation she has been unable to locate him. Her testimony was corroborated by her sister.

Husband Has Proxy Wife's Suit Charges

D. J. Dolan was today made co-defendant with Eugene Dolan in an amended complaint filed by Mrs. Margaret Agnes Dolan, who is seeking a divorce from Eugene Dolan on the charge of cruelty. In her amended complaint Mrs. Dolan declares D. J. Dolan and her husband have declared their intention to dispose of the Dolan Brothers' Wrecking Company and thus deprive her of her share of the community property.

Mrs. Dolan alleges D. J. Dolan is the proxy of her husband in the ownership of the wrecking company. The business is now worth $2,000, she avers, and she wants her community share of this amount, together with one-half of certain real estate worth $5000, two autos worth $4000 and the household furniture. She is asking $200 a month alimony and $2500 counsel fees. "There are no children," she says.

NEW BILL TO ASK AID FOR NAVAL BASE

Alameda Item Was Refused
Yesterday by Committee in Caucus Because It
Violated Accepted Rules

Provision for an initial appropriation for a naval base at Alameda will be included in a separate bill to be introduced before Congress. This announcement, made today, follows one to the effect that the Alameda item was refused by committee yesterday, not because of opposition to the plan, but, in case it was in violation of accepted rules.

The appropriation for the base at Alameda may be considered as a new one so long as the land remains unacquired and no work has been done. Leaders in the naval affairs committee have pointed out that it is impossible to add a new appropriation to the general bill as an amendment and the warning was given by opponents to the item that an attack based on this point would be made from the floor if the amendment was attempted.

Friends of the Alameda base were encouraged today when they learned that it was this technical cause which threw the matter out of the committee and not a sudden change in sentiment by men who have been working for the base. It is admitted there will be a delay occasioned but ultimate victory is foreseen.

Assistant Secretary Roosevelt, Admiral Counts and Admiral Gregory told the committee that the Alameda item was considered necessary by the naval department and urged immediate action toward accepting the bill, the offer for which expires on January 1, 1924.

Supposed Burglar Held as Drunk

ALAMEDA, May 9.—Charles J. Mills, 1342 Post street, wandered into the basement at the home of George Morris, 2048 Lincoln avenue, last night, and was discovered by Morris who took him for a burglar. The police were called and Policemen Britt and Palmer conveyed Mills to the police station where he was charged with being drunk.

Glass plate container, the frame of this shoe shoe separated in glass plates, the whole being immersed in oil.

Shoplifter Queen Steals $15,000 From S. F. Stores

SAN FRANCISCO, May 9.—How Mrs. Crothers was working constantly menaced by the reappearance of members of the gang reminding her of her oath. Finally she was forced, she said, to rejoin the gang here and has been playing her trade since.

The young woman, who is 21 and pretty, spent four hours with the police yesterday stripping bare the machinations of a nation-wide gang of shoplifters. She has been held incommunicado since her arrest on Saturday night, a week after her arrival in the city.

Mrs. Crothers arrived in San Francisco a week ago last Friday and started to "work" the following Monday. Between that date and the time of her arrest she "lifted" 200 silk gowns with such skill that even the department stores did not know the difference.

Immediately after she finished her story yesterday the police commenced work on the round-up of her confederates. The young woman refused to implicate any of her confederates, but the police have information which may lead to the arrest of some of the ring leaders, they say.

It was the efforts of Mrs. Crothers to "double cross" the gang and secure enough money to return to her home in Portland that proved her undoing, according to the police. Of the 200 gowns she stole she held out fifty and disposed of them to a local pawnshop proprietor. He in turn notified the police and the arrest followed.

That Mrs. Crothers was working with a man known as Bert Williams, alias Jim Grady, the head of the gang, is the belief of the police, who said that it was with this man that the young woman left her home in Portland.

Mrs. Crothers told the police that her husband is Harrison Crothers. She said that Sanders, the man who caught her, the shoplifting business, is now serving fifteen years in a Wisconsin penitentiary for bank robbery. She said that another man is now operating the "school" and the gang is preparing for the Portland expedition in 1923.

Other news items are an unprecedented number of reports of mother and son cases, the standard of ultimate divorce that the action of which all efforts are made are to be referred.

A MORE BEAUTIFUL BRUNSWICK

Brunswick, Queen Anne, a new model by the most famous of America's designers of period furnishings is now being shown and is very greatly admired by those who love the beautiful and artistic in home furnishings and the most nearly perfect in tone production. Being Brunswick, tonal superiority is, of course, conceded, and being a Zork model beauty and artistry of design and period are apparent to each beholder.

Not only will the Queen Anne satisfy fully in its great decorative value, but it will gratify in the moderation of its cost in comparison with its great beauty.

Note.—In the above tabulation of tides daily records are given in the order of occurrence, commencing with the spring morning tide in the left hand column and the evening tides as they occur. On some of the first three tides occur, the fourth occurs the following morning.

The columns of heights gives the elevations of each tide above the place of Coast and Soundings. The numbers are added as an additive to the chart depths, unless

U. C. ALUMNI TO DANCE TO MUSIC
BY RADIO PHONEReunion of 1916 Class Will
Be Marked by Wireless Program.

BERKELEY, May 9. — The 1916 class of the University of California will celebrate the sixth anniversary of its graduation Friday night with a radio concert furnished by The TRIBUNE and Rockridge radio station.

An aerial and radio receiving set is being installed at Hearst Hall. Several loud speaking horns are to be placed in the hall so that the 200 returning graduates will be able to hear the concert. The loud speaking horns will be installed by the Magnavox company of Oakland.

Jazz music will be broadcast by The TRIBUNE station on the Hotel Oakland and by Rockridge, so that the graduates will be able to dance to radio music.

The Rockridge station will come on first, at 7:30, broadcasting in place of the Rio Shop at Sunnyvale, whose time is from 7:30 to 8:15. At 8:15 Preston D. Allen of The TRIBUNE station will go on the air with a special program, which will serve as a brief introduction to the dance, which will then be followed by dance music.

Allyn G. Smith, a member of the class connected with the university extension division, in which class he has made several radio demonstrations, is working with Thomas C. McFarland, also a member of the 1916 class, in arranging the event and installing the instruments.

Osgood Murdock, chairman of the reunion committee, expects more than 200 members to attend. Preceding the entertainment and dance, Allen will attempt to pick up some long distance stations.

Electric Irons Can
Be Used to Charge
Storage Batteries

Some radio experiments have their "A" or filament storage battery charged at their local automobile garage about once a week or once every two weeks, depending upon whether the auditions are used every night or not, while others charge their battery at home. Where direct current lighting service is available at home, the battery may be given a good charge over night by simply connecting in series with it a 500 to 600-watt electric iron, taking care to set the iron on its ventilated metal stand or providing otherwise against any wood or other inflammable material taking fire, for the iron will get very hot after several hours in most cases. If general back-up of Science and Industry giving off the most bubbles is the negative one, while the opposite wire is, of course, the positive.

When freshly charged an with the auditions burning, the battery will usually read 8 to 7 volts, or about 2.3 volts per cell. When the cell volts reads 1.75 with load connected on discharge the battery should always be recharged.

When the cell volts reads 1.75 with load connected on discharge the battery should always be recharged.

ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS

Radio Editor TRIBUNE: (1) Can a crystal set be connected to a bed spring? What is the hook up and can one get so results? (2) Can one get wire he used for an outdoor aerial?

3. How can you determine the wave length of any station using a crystal set?
4. What would a single Murdock phone of 1000 ohms cost, and where can I get it?
5. How is it that I get only signals and can not hear music with the outfit mentioned in the following: one fixed condenser, a crystal detector, Murdock 3000 ohm phone, a single sliding tuning coil wound with 70 turns on a card board tube three inches in diameter with No. 24 enameled wire, an indoor aerial 7 feet long with bell wire and insulators at each end, and a water pipe ground?

FREDRICK M. CHAMPTION.
2425 Market street, Oakland.
1. Yes, it can be connected to a bed spring. The results from this sort of antenna, however, are usually very poor. The hook-up is as follows:

2. Yes, bell wire may be used with good results.
3. It can be approximated by a formula when the length of the antenna, length of lead-in and height of antenna are known.
4. About $2.
5. Your hook-up—No. 1—is O. K. If connected up properly, with all joints soldered and with an outdoor antenna composed of two wires 75 feet long spaced three feet apart. There is no reason why you should not receive telephone signals quite clearly.

Radio Editor TRIBUNE: I sent a letter with 15 cents to Washington, D. C., for a pamphlet on radio. This was over a week ago. I have not received the pamphlet yet.

Subscriber to The TRIBUNE. You do not state to whom you sent the 15 cents. If you sent it to the proper department, you will probably receive the pamphlet in a few days. It is to be remembered that Washington does not act quickly.

Radio Editor TRIBUNE: I am a club member and would like to know if you will please sell me a vacuum tube. I can not get one anywhere.

JOHN DELGARD.
The TRIBUNE does not handle supplies directly and does not sell them. The supplies furnished those who earn them are pure, sent from the supplier's house for that purpose. Advise that you keep in touch with the local concerns that handle tubes. Several places expect a supply this week.

Station Linsley—4523 Walnut avenue, Oakland: Your crystal set and hook-up is a good one, but we do not believe in any more efficient than The TRIBUNE crystal set, at though a little more elaborate. The TRIBUNE published a similar diagram about three weeks ago.

Radio Editor TRIBUNE: I have a TRIBUNE crystal set and live 50 miles from Oakland. Do you think that if I used 1000 ohm receivers I could get Oakland more clearly? I need receivers of such capacity.

1. Two wires spaced three feet apart.
2. If the swing supports are not too far away from the receiving set and are buried in the ground, they will make a good ground. If the swing is more than 20 feet away, use the pipe driven in the ground.
3. They will probably be printed by the government soon.

NOTED SINGERS
ARE ON TRIBUNE
RADIO PROGRAMBroadcasting Will Begin at 7:30 and Dance Music
at 8 O'Clock.

Two well-known artists, one of whom has already pleased thousands of radio fans with his songs, will sing tonight when The TRIBUNE radio broadcasting station, located on the Hotel Oakland, goes on the air at 7:30 o'clock.

Miss Anita Sullivan, San Francisco artist who is now singing at the New Franklin Theater, will start The TRIBUNE's radio program this evening with a number of popular songs. She will be followed by the basso profundo who has a record for wrecking receiving instruments with his powerful voice Robert (Bob) Carlson. Those who have heard Carlson on previous occasions have approved of his singing and there are dozens of requests on file in the radio department asking for his songs.

Miss Sullivan has been popular with Bayshore audiences for three years. She will select her own songs to sing on the air. Her program will be made from a store of popular and quaint numbers that she has at her command.

The balance of the program will consist of dance music to satisfy a large number of requests received yesterday that The TRIBUNE devote part of its program tonight to jazz. There will be two dances in Berkeley one in Alameda and another in Oakland that will dance to radio music at 8 o'clock.

It is planned to start the dance music at 8 o'clock. The TRIBUNE station will furnish dance music until 8:15 when the program will be turned over to the store of popular and quaint numbers that she has at her command.

LESSON NO. 49.
The Vario-Coupler.
By EDWARD M. DAVIS
(Copyright, 1922, by Edward M. Davis.)

Short wave reception is accomplished in a very efficient manner by the use of the vario-coupler. This type of inductive tuner, or loose-coupler, consists essentially of a stationary primary winding and a movable secondary winding, which is arranged as to revolve within the magnetic field of the primary.

The number of turns in effective use in the primary winding, and consequently the amount of inductance, is made variable through the medium of taps taken from the winding and brought out for connection to multipoint switches. The secondary winding may also have taps for increasing or decreasing the number of turns but the usual method of securing a variation of inductance, in the secondary circuit of a receiver containing a vario-coupler, is by means of a variometer.

Diagram 1 shows the mechanical construction of the vario-coupler. The secondary winding is mounted on a shaft and may be rotated through an angle of 90 degrees in the field of the primary winding. By this arrangement a close variation in the coupling of the coils is secured, the inductive relation being at a maximum when the coils are concentric and at a minimum when they are at right angles to each other. The resultant effect is similar to sliding the secondary in and out of the primary winding as described in a previous article, which explained the use of a loose-coupler in a two circuit receiver.

Diagram 2 shows a very popular and efficient combination for short wave reception. This circuit uses the vario-coupler in conjunction with a vacuum detector tube and two variometers, one of the variometers being in the grid circuit and the other in the circuit containing the plate.

In a simple form the vario-coupler may consist of a section of tubing four inches long and three and one-half inches in diameter on which is wound sixty turns of No. 24 S. C. C. wire. Taps are taken off diagonally along the coil for each ten of the first fifty turns, and for the remaining ten, the taps are compacted for each two turns. The groups containing ten turns and those containing the turns are then connected to separate multipoint switches. For the secondary coil a section of tubing one and one-half inches long and two and one-half inches in diameter may be used, on which is wound fifty turns of No. 24 S. C. C. wire, half of the turns being placed on each side of the shaft on which the secondary rotates. This shaft is mounted approximately by one-half inch from the top of the tube on which is wound the primary coil, as shown in Diagram 1.

"La Traviata" by Radiophone.

Verdi's famous opera, "La Traviata," produced so many times by famous stars of the operatic stage, has recently been successfully "broadcast" by excellent artists specifically trained in the radio technique of the wireless studio. Every stage setting, the costumes, and the action in all its detail was so carefully explained in advance that the large and unseasoned audience could picture the individual movements and the surroundings. This operatic success, perfected in all its detail, was carried on the tiny electric waves of the radiophone and is but another marvel produced by this wonderful science.

Pure—A short length of conducting material having a low melting point, usually lead wire, inserted in a circuit in such a manner that should the current rise above a safe amount, the fuse melts, thus breaking the circuit and preventing damage to instruments.
